NAACP Meeting Mets Three Prexy Candidates

The local chapter of the NAACP held its general membership meeting Sunday at its local office, 1500A North Main Street, where the nominating committee conducted its task of submitting a list of candidates who will run for various offices at the Saturday, Dec. 8 election. Approximately 80 persons attended.

Rev. Albert Dunn

Rev. Jesse Scott

James Veal

Seeking the presidency for the local office will be Rev. Albert Dunn, pastor of the Allen Chapel AME Church, currently holding services Sundays at the New Town Tavern, 600 W. Jackson; Rev. Jesse Scott, Associate Minister of the Second Baptist Church, 500 W. Madison Ave.; and James Veal, currently chairman of the local chapter's Legal Redress Committee.

Other officers nominated were Logan Fields for First Vice President; Robert Trimble and Father Brian Flynn for Second Vice President (one will be elected); Marjorie Elliott for Third Vice President; Donette Harding as Secretary; Carol Arberry for Asst.
