from childhood to internment at Arlington. Since he didn't talk to a lot of folks who knew the real Joe Louis, guess he didn't want to be confused by facts... 50 yrs. ago Nancy Cunard privately published a massive anthology "Negro." Originally 1000 copies were published.

There are just a few about today and they are valued at $1000 a copy. The news now is that Ungar publishers, for the first time, has issued "Negro: An Anthology," in paperback. It is worth your reading time. It's a chronicle of the literary renaissance and political movements of the '30s and Black history, life, literature, education, music and art in the Americas, Europe and Africa.

Kennedy Center to celebrate an all-American season of American dance. The others are The Jeffrey Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, Ballet West and the San Francisco Ballet... STAY LOOSE... Billy Rowe is a syndicated columnist.
