

23 PHI DEBUTANTES FETED AT ANNUAL LES FEMMES DOUZE BALL

Using the theme "Holiday Potpourri," Les Femmes Douze recently presented their annual Debutante Ball at the Dunes Hotel's Crown Jewel Room. More than 350 guests were on hand for the festive and glamorous occasion.

Events included the awarding of scholarships to 14 Upsilon Debutantes of 1983, presentations of donations to several community agencies and organizations and the awarding of honors to 1984 Phi Debutantes.

The 1983 Upsilon Debutantes receiving scholarships were Detrita Atkinson, Ursula Dunn, Tammy Hayes, Melodee James, Paula Perkins, Sonya Smith, Crisantha Warren, Antrese Dickerson, Tonya Freeman, Sheila Jackson, Karen Kincaid, Janelle Pughsley, Thalia Stepp and Jocelyn Wilson.

Honors awarded to 1984 Phi Debutantes were as follows:

Stephanie Newman, Sonya Turner and Enga Warren received the honor of Miss Phi Debutante for excellent evaluations earned during the year.

Stephanie Newman was voted Miss Congeniality.

Daphne Sherelle Whitson was presented the Community Service Award for more than 160 hours of service.

Rosalind Turmon and Wendy Nichols were presented the Talent Award.

Donations were made to United Blood Services, the NAACP, the Lupus Foundation and the Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital Dialysis Unit.

The 1984 Phi Debutantes are pictured below, with the exception of Leslie Moreland of Eldorado High School, whose picture was unavailable.
