Another Black History Month Observance

McWilliams Townsite 1905-1980

In the early years of Las Vegas black citizens often worked together to build businesses and homes. The Bellevue Hotel was built in the early '30's on 2nd Street between Ogden and Stewart. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Jones had such early pioneers as Ernest Stevens, Roy Christenson, A.B. Mitchel, Jim Howard, Eddie Scott and Ralph Simpson erect their establishment.
