

MONITOR Mail

Dear Editor:

Your magazine is a real joy to us. Our family eagerly awaits each issue. We are learning so much about our Black-led organizations and about AOIP.

We would like to become more involved as volunteers in your program. It is a real gift to be able to read and write.

We would like to share our gift with others.

—Patricia Cameron
Washington, D.C.

Dear Editor:

The November issue of the National BLACK MONITOR is outstanding! Thanks for highlighting the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

Everyone who's seen a copy is impressed, both with the overall paper and with the story of our Association. Your editorial staff is to be commended for their outstanding writing.

Please thank all of your staff for this sensitive, comprehensive story, so well written and illustrated. We'll use it extensively to tell the Assault On Illiteracy Program and NANBPWC, Inc. stories.

Do have a Happy Thanksgiving—you've made one for us!

Frankie Jacobs Gillette
National President

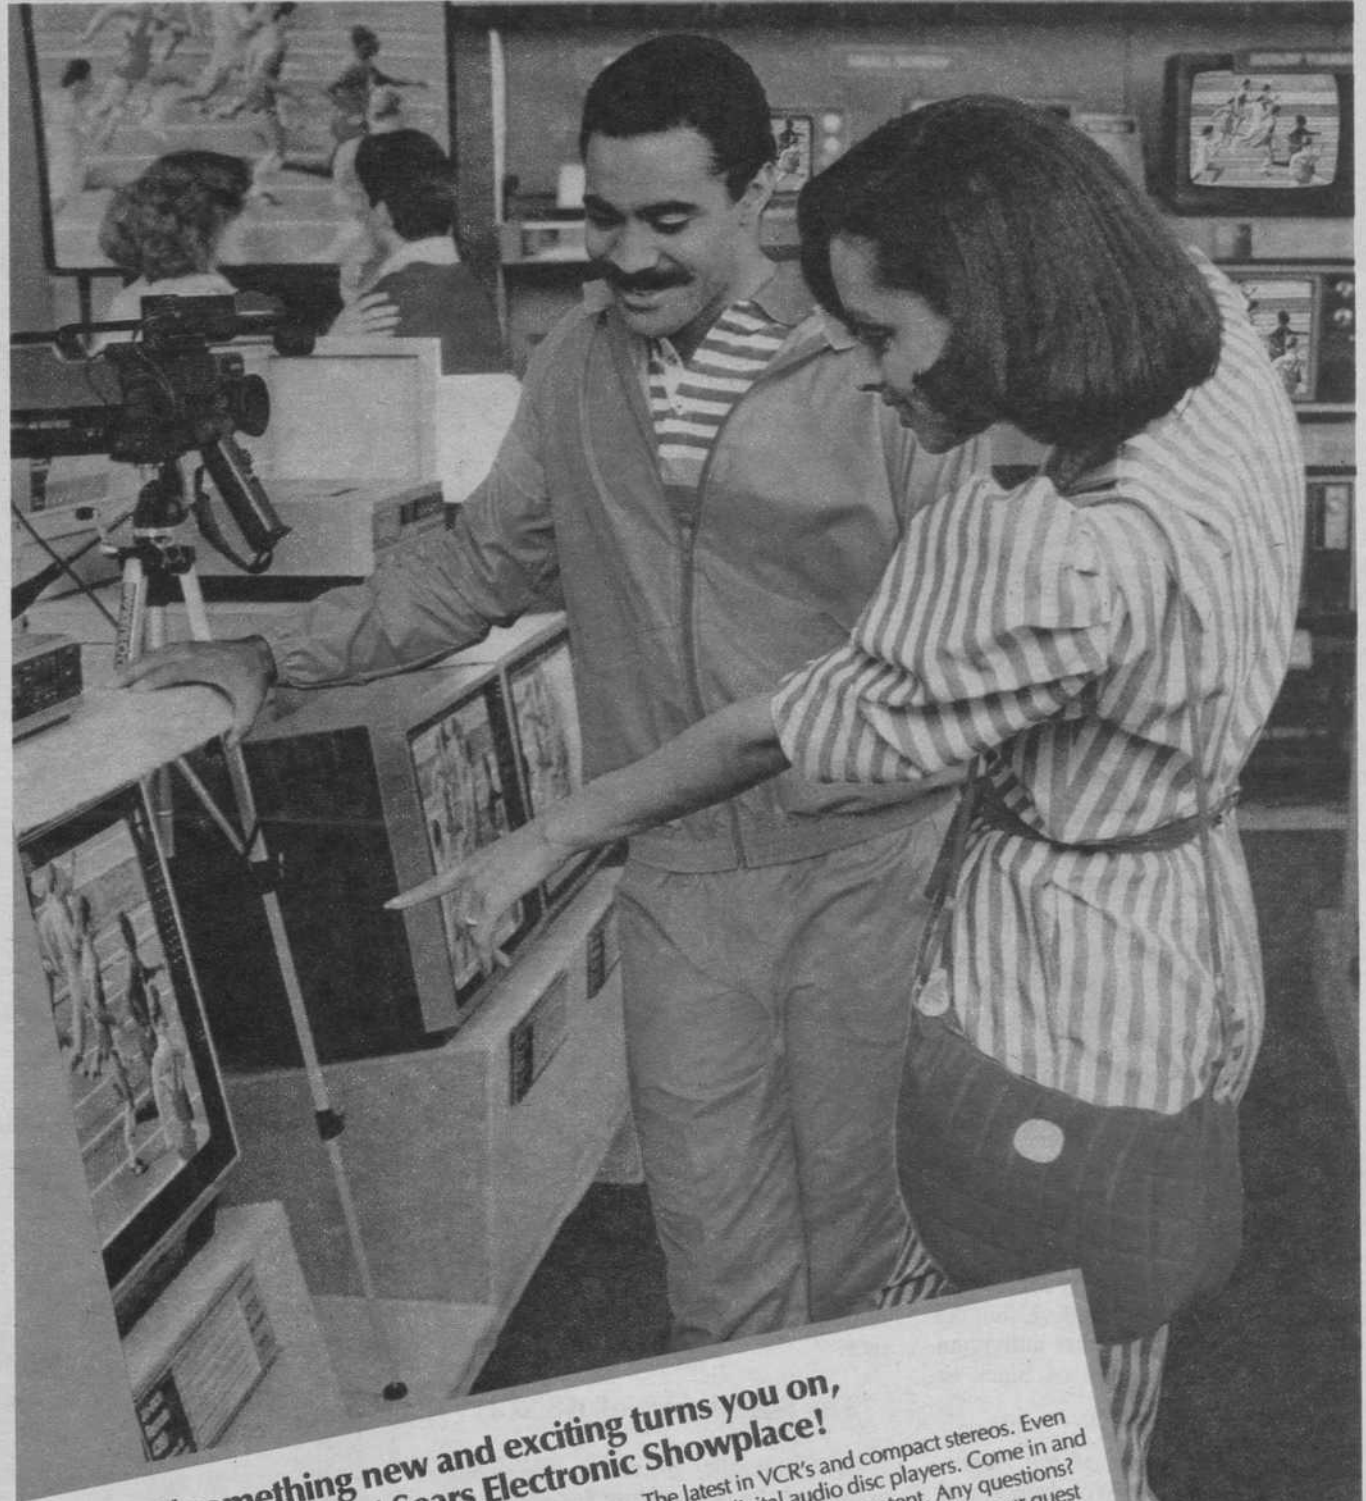

Dear Editor:

On behalf of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, Inc., may I take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for featuring our sorority in the National BLACK MONITOR's October issue. We are so delighted and most appreciative. Also, you have our deepest gratitude and thanks for taking time from your busy schedule to come to our meeting in Washington, D.C., September 28, 1984.

Your presentation was enlightening, informative and uplifting. We were very impressed with your candidness and knowledge of the Assault On Illiteracy Program. You inspired our membership to the degree that the National Executive Board voted the next day at our board meeting, to contribute five hundred dollars to the Assault On Illiteracy Program. We are very appreciative of the publicity our organization is receiving from the feature story in the BLACK MONITOR. Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, Inc. is committed to working closely with this excellent project and we will be tenacious in our activities to eradicate the high level of illiteracy in America.

Again, thank you for all your support. Please continue to contact me for any service we can render in the future.

Audrey R. Coleman
Grand Basileus

If something new and exciting turns you on, you'll find it at Sears Electronic Showplace!

You take your leisure life as seriously as your work. So you want your entertaining sights and sounds to be state-of-the-art. Come to Sears and discover the Electronic Showplace. Surprise! It's all here. Component TV that's stereo ready.

The latest in VCR's and compact stereos. Even the new digital audio disc players. Come in and browse to your heart's content. Any questions? Ask away. Sears has the answers to your quest for entertainment!

Available in most Sears retail stores. Simulated reception for all TV's. ©Sears Roebuck and Co. 1984

There's more for your life at SEARS