HOGGARDS TESTIMONIAL GREAT SUCCESS

The citizenry of Las Vegas turned out in mass to pay homage to two great humanitarians - Mr. & Mrs. J. DAVID HOGGARD, Sr. - on last Saturday evening at the Union Plaza Hotel-Triple Crown Room.

Comments are that the program was excellent in its entirety although somewhat lengthy.

The event, sponsored by the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., with your writer serving as Banquet Chairperson and Mistress of Ceremonies, was honored by the presence of Governor Richard Bryan and wife, Congressman Harry Reid, and North Las Vegas Mayor Pro-Tem, Theron Goynes. Also seen in the audience were Helen Cannon, Senator Joe Neal, and other local dignitaries. Proclamations declaring Saturday, April 20, 1985, as Mabel and David Hoggard, Sr. Day were presented by Governor Bryan for the State of Nevada and Theron Goynes for the City of North Las Vegas. Other proclamations received and read were from the Clark County Commissioners' Office and from Mayor Bill Brair for the City of Las Vegas.

Also seen in the audience were Helen Cannon, Phi Delta Kappa Sorority National Officer; Winnie Palmer, First Supreme Anti-Basileus, and Lorayne Douglas, Phi Delta Kappa Sorority Regional Director from Los Angeles, California.

Dr. Paul Meacham, President of Clark County Community College, developed and delivered a masterpiece on the lives and accomplishments of Mabel and David Hoggard. We were stunned as he revealed the many achievements of the Hoggards. Adding a touch of humor to his speech, Dr. Meacham captured the audience with his unusual approach and deliverance of his message. His speech was said to be dynamic and most informative.
