BILLIE ROWE'S NOTEBOOK

WASHINGTON, D.C.:—After so much ado about race and color down through the American generations, it's good to come upon a day in time when two talented gentlemen of color are the top of the heap, the choice of all the people on a dual set of eye/ear levels. As this is written, Eddie Murphy, 'The Beverly Hills Cop,' was handcuffing all film competition at the boxoffice. By the time your eye reduces these words his total film gross for this one Paramount flick will probably have reached $200-million. For a picture that wasn't originally authored to star an Afro-American, Murphy acted like he was born to the script.

On the 'boob tube' front 'The Bill Cosby Show' is number one. Its Nielsen sweep brushed aside such eye magnets as 'Dynasty'.

WRITE OUT:—Miguel Perez, the Latino columnist, is seemingly using his Daily News write powers to shatter whatever unity there might be between Blacks and Latinos...

CONCLUSION:—Out of touch friends of Frankie Richards were belatedly saddened to learn that he lost his brother, Harold, in Orlando, Fla., and his father, George, in New York within the same wk. of Feb. '85...You may still have the time and luck to catch Joan Miller's Multi ethnic dance co. at the Joyce Theatre in the Apple. The run is dedicated to Avon Long, who enjoyed a prodigious 50 yr. career in films, TV and B'way stage. He was 'Porgy & Bess' most energetic 'Sportin' Life,' sang and danced at the original Cotton Club, appeared in 'Roots' and made his final B'way outing in 'Bubbling Brown Sugar.' He died at 73 last year...The food and clothing problems of Africa have forged a link between the United Black Church Appeal and the Organization Of African Unity. Its Exe. Sec'y, Amb. Oumarou Youssoufou, Ossie Davis, Church Appeal ch'person and City Councilman Rev. Wendell Foster have put heads together at the U.N. in search of a working solution...Prince, criticized for not joining other wax stars on a benefit recording to aid famine victims, has quietly earmarked the earnings from his 'Tears in Your Eyes' for Ethiopian relief...

STAY LOOSE...—Billy Rowe is a syndicated columnist.
