A TOUCH OF "GRACE"

by Grace McGlothen

Present conductors are Kathleen Wilson and Denise Griffin, who also play the piano expertly and are music teachers with the Clark County School District.

Rehearsals are held every Saturday morning at UNLV Grant Hall, Room No. 129, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

BANQUET/WORKSHOP- LVABSE invites the public to plan to attend its Third Annual Banquet and Mini-Workshops slated to be held on Saturday, May 25, from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m., at the MGM Grand Hotel, in Metro Rooms No. 1, 2, & 3 on the 26th Floor.

The theme is Mandamus on the Status Quo "Saving The African American Child."

Guest speakers will include distinguished local educators and community leaders, and will also feature the internationally known Dr. James E. Anderson of the University of Houston. There will also be a lively panel discussion, video tapes, a choice of two workshops, an elaborate banquet, and live entertainment.

At this event the late

Gov. Richard Bryan is shown presenting the Proclamation declaring Saturday, April 20, 1985 as Mabel and David Hoggard, Sr. Day to the Hoggards. The Proclamation was presented at the Testimonial Banquet for the Hoggards, sponsored by the Las Vegas Chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc.

LVABSE NEWS — The Las Vegas Alliance of Black School Educators, Inc. cordially invites all music lovers to join the recently reorganized Meistersinger Choir. This German name translated into English means Mastersingers.

During the early sixties, the Meistersingers Choir was first organized by Dr. Herschel Williams, and your writer was its first Choir Director. Its purpose is to be of service to the community and to perpetuate and preserve good music: it also serves to foster good fellowship among its participants through music.

Membership is open to anyone who enjoys singing all kinds of music, ranging from Gospel to Classical. It is also open to those who are willing to dedicate two hours per week for serious and intensive rehearsals, and to those who are willing to learn how to sing.

Dr. Thomas E. Wilson, LVABSE Past President, will be honored posthumously.

The public is urged to become involved and to participate. For ticket information, please call 647-3902, or 457-2393.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMERS — The success of the Hoggards Testimonial was not only so because of Dr. Paul Meacham's dynamic address or the outstanding community participation with awards, but adding the icing to the cake was the superb performance of all entertainers who were: the Mabel Hoggard Sixth Grade Center Choir, the masterly violin rendition from Miss Daphney Whitson, the melodious vocal solo from Barbara Kirkland, and the challenging yet touching songs rendered by the members of the Meistersinger choir. Also, tickling the ivories in his own professional way was Maestro Henry Shed, who can be seen playing nightly at Caesar's Palace in the Lounge.
