REV. W.J. WYNN, NOTED CHURCH AND CIVIC LEADER, DIED IN RENO

Singing praises of their fallen spiritual leader, more than 300 people jammed Faith Deliverance Church of God in Christ on Sunday in a memorial service for the Rev. Willie J. Wynn, who died of a heart attack last Wednesday. "I had my tears and sorry," hundreds of church members sang, joined in the three-hour service by several local government leaders, including Gov. Richard Bryan.

The song echoed from the small church into the northeast Reno neighborhood where residents say Wynn championed civic rights issues while heading efforts to provide adequate housing for minorities and poor.

A funeral service was held in the Life Center 1875 Oddie Blvd., Sparks, where burial at Mountain View Cemetery.

Rev. W.J. Wynn, Superintendent of Northern Nevada, First Administrative Assistant and Pastor of the Faith Deliverance Church of God in Christ, was born August 6, 1937, in Panama City, Florida, to Willie H. Wynn and Zadie Wynn. He departed this life Wednesday, July 3, 1985, at St. Mary's Hospital, Reno, Nevada.

He was called to the ministry at an early age in life and ordained. Rev. Wynn served under Elder W.N. Webb, who is now our State Bishop, until the Lord gave him a work of his own. The harvest began November, 1966, in Black Springs, Nevada. One year later in October of 1967, the church moved to Reno--the Mt. Zion Church building at 720 Montello, where service was held at this location for a year. Later the Lord blessed the congregation to relocate to its present location in 1967--the Faith Deliverance Church of God in Christ, where he presided as Pastor until his Home Going.

Rev. W.J. Wynn received an honorary Doctorate of Divinity. His life touched many people of all walks of life. He knew no color barriers, and surmounted every stumbling block and made them into stepping stones and every trial he made into a challenge. Rev. Wynn was very seldom without a smile or kind word. He was a man of God.

Among Rev. Wynn's church honors, he served as --first Black Cabinet Member in the State of Nevada-- appointed by Governor Paul Laxalt; Consumers Advisory Panel; Community Services Board; Reno Housing Authority; Nevada Equal Rights Commissioner-- appointed by Governor Richard Bryan; and numerous other advisory boards.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. W.J. Wynn of Reno, Nevada; his eldest daughter Patricia Wynn Tau; son-in-law, Elder Lee Tau; Robbye Wynn Watson; son-in-law, Bro. James Watson, Jr.; Leisa Wynn Hall; Karen Wynn Cooper; Wilhelmenia Wynn; Juanita Wynn; John Wynn; Sharon Wynn; youngest daughter Racheal Wynn; nine grandchildren; and God-parents Bishop E.N. Webb and Mrs. Webb.

Also three brothers and four sisters, Mr. Ellis Wynn, Bronx, N.Y.; Mrs. Wilhelmenia Fryer, Madera, CA; Mrs. Zadie Turner, Compton, CA; Mr. Cobb Wynn, Bronx, N.Y.; Mrs. Queenie May Wynn, Bronx, N.Y.; Mrs. Mea Queen Mack Wynn, Bronx, N.Y.; Mr. Jimmie Wynn of Reno, Nevada; and a host of relatives and friends.
