

THE PLIGHT OF THE DROUGHT-STRICKEN VICTIMS REMAIN FOREMOST AMONG THE CONCERNS OF BLACK LAS VEGANS WHO ARE FULLY SUPPORTING THE LOCAL RELIEF CAMPAIGN

The deadline for the Black Las Vegans for African Relief drive is drawing to a close. It ends on Saturday, August 3.

The local drive commenced on July 30 with a special local project organized to encourage Black Las Vegans to contribute to those who are suffering in those drought-stricken countries. Millions of children are dying silently. Famine has left them too weak to cry--their parents too weak to hope.

During these past few weeks many individuals and organizations have contributed through the efforts of the Black Las Vegans for African Relief Fund Drive Committee. Special impetus has been given through some of the local churches and a notable effort made with the Upperbound students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

As the drive continues, individuals will also be able to make their contributions through these authorized points who are identified with a "Black Las Vegans for African Relief" poster displayed prominently in the window of the businesses listed: Cheyenne Barber Shop, Nucleus Plaza office, Seven Seas Restaurant, Mercedes Beauty Supply, Ray & Ross Transport, Yovars of Las Vegas and the Religious Emporium.
