

Peter H. Zavattaro, President and General Manager of E G & G, Energy Measurements, Inc. recently presented a $2,500 contribution from E G & G to Dr. Paul E. Meacham, President of Clark County Community College to assist the College in maintaining its high quality educational programs in Southern Nevada.

COPING

from page 2

possibly, be a S.O.B. When you think of Lee in these negative terms, it angers you and makes it impossible to deal logically with him. Perhaps Lee did something that you didn't like. But he has the right to do what he wishes as long as it doesn't break the law. You may not like his behavior, but he does have the right. Once you realize this, you are able to exist happily in spite of Lee's unacceptable behavior, and stop torturing yourself emotionally. Think logically and positively.

You may think you have a need for a crutch such as drugs or alcohol. But it's only a thought. It's a desire and not a need. It has become traditional and habitual for people to consume drugs or alcohol when they feel they have a problem. But you need only shelter, air, water and food. Many people falsely say that they have a need for something simply so they will have an excuse for using it. When you realize that you can reason better when your mind is clear and your health is good, without drugs or alcohol, you'll know that you don't need a destructive crutch. Think logically. You have more control over yourself than you give credit for.

It's a simple matter to throw in the towel and let the world pass you by when you fail. Failure in the past does not necessarily mean that you will have only failure in the future. If you have a consistent pattern of failure, you must be doing something wrong. Now is the time to alter your behavior and find another way to approach your life. You may need another plan so that you don't repeat the same mistakes. Don't allow yourself to get locked into a "losing syndrome." If you perceive of yourself as being too far gone to change, you will not take the steps that are necessary to get your life back on track. There is no mysterious force that has decided you will be a failure forever. The person who controls your life is you. If you continue the same pattern of behavior that has led to failure in the past, it will probably lead to failure in the future. You have the power to change and control your own destiny. First, however, you must stop thinking of yourself as one who is locked into failure. That is illogical thinking which is not fair to yourself. Try a new approach to your life. If it fails, try another one until you find the right one. Think logically and be successful.

Bonanza Registration Scheduled

Bonanza High School registration is scheduled for August 29-30. Late registration will be held the afternoon of September 3.

Returning students who have pre-registered will receive a registration packet in the mail on or about August 20. The time and location to report for registration will be indicated on the front of the packet.

Students are advised they must bring this packet to registration.

Students new to Bonanza may pre-register prior to August 23. New students, not pre-registered by August 23, may register beginning at 12:30 p.m. on August 29 or 30.

All students, returning or new, who have not registered on August 29 or 30 may register on September 3 beginning at noon.

Sunrise Acres Begins Registration

Sunrise Acres Elementary School, 2501 Sunrise Avenue, will register new and former students in person at the school office beginning August 15.

There will be no telephone registration this year as in the past school years.

Kindergarten students, and students new to the district, must have proof of immunization and birth certificates at time of registration.

Basic Registration

Basic High School students will register for classes on August 29-30. Exact registration time for junior and seniors are determined by grade and birthdate.

All Basic High School students must report for classes on Tuesday, September 3 at 7:20 a.m.

Cool Out with Coors

When you take five, do it in style. Unwind with the clean, brewery fresh taste of Coors.

DRINK SAFELY