

BESSIE BRAGGS NAMED FOOD BANK DIRECTOR

SEE PAGE 5

Las Vegas Police Officer Wounded During Search

SEE PAGE 3

FREE!
TAKE ONE!

Las Vegas

Sentinel Voice

VOLUME 6, ISSUE 19

AN AWARD WINNING NEWSPAPER

SEPTEMBER 5, 1985

"The Truth Shall Set You Free"

"Dollars for Scholars"

SEE REPORT PAGE 3

LOCAL STUDENTS WIN SOUTHLAND SCHOLARSHIPS

Among those on hand for the scholarship presentations were (front row, left to right) Jan Mitchell, Div. Personnel Manager--Southland Corp.; Richard Kraven, District Manager, District 2053 Southland Corp.; and those standing to the left of Kraven are the honorees and their families. On the front row, on the extreme right is B. Yvette Moore, Employment Specialist for the South Pacific Division, Southland Corporation. At the left rear is Barry Yost, District manager, West Las Vegas, and to his left is Bill Nolan, District Manager, North Las Vegas.

Selected among those honored during the 1985/86 college year was Naomi Dorsey, a Rancho High School graduate who will be attending University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She is shown with her mother Jonnie Wattree.

Bryan Hanaki, a graduate of Boulder City High School, holding his award, is another proud recipient of a Southland Corporation scholarship. His father stands to his left. Others shown are Bryan's sister and brother. Bryan Hanaki plans to attend Occidental college in California.

Wesley Baltimore, a Las Vegas High School graduate, shown with his Southland Corporation scholarship award plans to attend the University of La Verne (CA.). He is shown with his mother Nellie Baltimore and nephews.

Grand Officers of Nevada Masons to be honored

SEE PAGE 4

NEVADA BLACK CHAMBER COMMERCE MEMBERSHIP MEETING SET FOR SEPT. 6

SEE PAGE 4

Exciting Pointer Sisters back at Caesars Palace

SEE PAGE 8