Sammy Davis Jr.
Headlines NAACP
Freedom Fund Banquet

Sammy Davis, Jr., star of motion picture stage and song, will lead a host of others in the entertainment and sports world at the NAACP Life membership Recognition and Freedom Fund Banquet, October 19 in the Holiday Inn Center Strip.

Once each year the NAACP makes an appeal to the general public for funds in order that it will be able to pay for its local and National program operations.

Every day a large number of people either call or come into the Branch office expecting the service they receive. Most of these people do not have current NAACP membership cards nor have they had them since they left Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas or Georgia many years ago.

NAACP and Las Vegas

Sammy Davis Jr. a member of the NAACP National Life Membership Committee remembers the days when he along with Josephine Baker, Lena Horne, Pearl Bailey and other Black Stars could not live in the Strip Hotels where they performed.

Before the NAACP opened the doors of the Strip Hotels through the threat of mass demonstrations, Sammy recalls how all Black stars had to live in West Las Vegas or in trailers in the parking lots of major hotels.

In those days, Black stars could not be patrons of the hotels nor, could they make use of the swimming pool facilities where they performed.

The story is told how the late great Josephine Baker, an international theatrical star and the toast of Paris, refused to do the last show one night in the fifties at Rancho Vegas until management went out and brought some Black patrons in as her guests into the showroom.

NAACP Needs You and
You Need the NAACP

Come on Las Vegas let us band together Blacks, White, Red and Yellow and make the NAACP what we all want it to be.

Come on Freedom Fighters get into the fight and do your share. Don't just sit on the sidelines and criticize what has not been done or what might be wrong. Let's right the wrongs together.

Come into the office and ask what you can do to help the cause. If you can't come in, call us on the telephone and offer your assistance.

Come into the office and make your donations for the Life membership Recognition and Freedom Fund Banquet '85 or purchase an ad in the Souvenir journal.

Mail all donations to NAACP, P.O. Box 4887, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89127.
