

Hawthorne has aggressive, dynamic speaker in Rev. David Moore of St. Paul Bapt. Church

Rev. David Moore, pastor of the St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Hawthorne, Nevada is a symbol of drive, goal-orientation and creative leadership.

He also enjoys great support from his family including his wife, Mildred and their four daughters.

The Sentinel-Voice this week salutes Rev. David Moore for his great work and

Bass-Lowrey Family Reunions Traditionally Among The Most Memorable

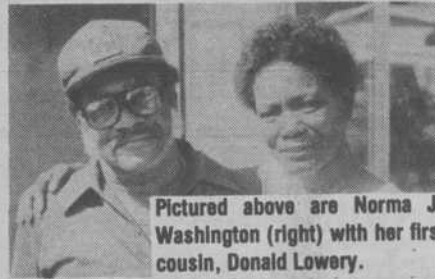

Practically every year since 1972 the Bass-Lowrey family reunions have become one of the stellar memorable occasions.

About 250 members of the Bass-Lowrey clans unite annually at a designated city to enjoy the fellowship and love for one another.

These reunions rally family members from Nevada, Washington, California, Arizona, Kansas, Oklahoma, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana. It takes 6 months of preparation to bring all of this into fruition.

One of the family reunions was held at the residence of Norma J. Washington at 1875 Desna Street in Reno. The Sentinel-Voice was on hand to capture the feeling of unity and love freely given to and by all who attended. It was a rewarding experience.

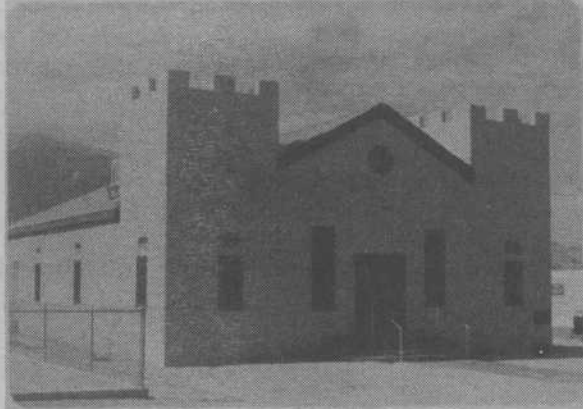

Here are some of the pictures captured during the progress of the reunion.

AN ANNUAL AFFAIR

St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church

Rev. Moore was called to St. Paul about 3 years ago. He was originally from Berkley, California.

the development of new projects for the St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church of Hawthorne.

He moves around the community easily and is well accepted everywhere, particularly with the many other churches of the area. He is often called upon to preach sermons at churches of varied demoninations. Recently he preached at the Hawthorne Catholic Church.

Rev. David Moore

Rev. Moore is proud of the successes achieved during the church's 34th anniversary. It was well attended and received.

Recently, Evangelist E.A. Taylor of Los Angeles was the evangelist speaker during the church's 2-week revival.
