All of the newspapers in BMI Cooperative are considered publishers of the MONITOR. Because of cost limitations in printing, we cannot provide MONITORS for all of our publishers. Those marked with a bullet are our present carriers.

Editorial Notes

As a result of reader interest in being assured about where Black Americans should travel and by what means they should travel and be appreciated, the National BLACK MONITOR will focus primarily on these travel needs in October and April.

In this issue our travel destinations are The Bahamas, Walt Disney World and Cairo, Egypt. We believe that Black Americans will have a pride-filled experience in The Bahamas, where the majority of the population is Black and the very stable government is Black-led.

At Walt Disney World, Black Americans, particularly Black teenagers, will be thrilled to view the Michael Jackson memorabilia on display in the Michael Jackson Suite.

In Cairo, Black Americans will find that—contrary to Hollywood's epics, Egyptians range in color from old ivory to ebony...and one can sense and see everywhere a close kinship with and warmth toward their darker-skinned "cousins."
