

State Transportation needs to be assessed

Statewide transportation needs will be assessed in a series of meetings between local government leaders and officials from the Nevada Department of Transportation (NDOT).

Using short and long range (3/10 year) proposal as a guide, NDOT Director Al Stone and others will explain needs as developed through a forecasting and evaluation process using all factors that affect highway travel.

Officials will also hear what locals have to say about community needs.

All this information will be considered for the annually updated 3/10 work plan which goes before the Nevada State Transportation Board in January of 1986.

The annual work program comes from this plan and is approved each June by the board's three members, Governor Richard Bryan,

Attorney General Brian McKay and Controller Darrel Daines.

In the meantime, the community visit schedule looks like this:

Nye County, Tonopah Courthouse, Nov. 5, 10 a.m. Esmeralda County, Goldfield Courthouse, Nov. 5, 1 p.m. Eureka County, Eureka Courthouse, Nov. 6, 9:30 a.m. White Pine County, Ely Courthouse, Nov. 6, 1:30 p.m. Humboldt County, Winnemucca NDOT District Office, Nov. 7, 10 a.m. Lander County, Battle Mountain Courthouse, Nov. 7, 1 p.m. Clark County, Cashman Field, Nov. 18, 8:30 a.m. Washoe County, Washoe County Regional Transportation Center, Nov. 14, 8:30 a.m.

NDOT participants include Stone and Deputy Director Garth Dull.

Sammy Davis, Jr. in great pain

LOS ANGELES -- Sammy Davis Jr., is expected to remain in the hospital for at least a week as doctors try to find out what is causing severe pain in his hip, the entertainer's publicist says.

Davis, 59, canceled a Las Vegas engagement to enter Cedars Sinai Medical Center for tests on Friday, his spokesman, Arnold Lipsman, said on Monday.

Davis' hip has bothered him for the past few months, Lipsman said. A preliminary diagnosis had not been made, the publicist said, adding that Davis' condition is "very painful."

The singer was in fair condition. Davis had opened at the Desert Inn on Thursday and was scheduled to appear there through Nov. 27.

Cornell McBride, center and Therman McKenzie, right, owners of M & M Products Company, Atlanta, receive a plaque from Burke Johnson, host of "INSPIRATIONS ACROSS AMERICA," for the company's sponsorship of the nationally syndicated radio show on contemporary gospel music. Johnson is narrator of the series.

Nevada to receive $9 million in advanced right-of-way funds

Receiving $9 million is a sign of Nevada's effective use of federal funds said the state transportation department (NDOT) director, Al Stone.

Commenting on the Oct. 28 announcement from Congresswoman Barbara Vucanovich that Nevada will receive $9 million in advanced right-of-way (R/W) funds from the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Stone pointed out that since 1971, the state has had some $115 in such funds.

The newest $9 million, to be used for land purchases along the Interstate 580 route in Reno, puts a total of $46 million under obligation.

The state has spent all but $22 million of this — a number that doesn't sound so large when talking about land purchases.

Also, it's a case where the federal government encourages spending. Right-of-way allocations cannot be hoarded.

As a result, not all states are in a position to effectively use the program.

"For a sparsely populated state to purchase land, then using these funds requires a state to purchase land, then bill the FHWA.

Being able to do this with the most recent $9 million means the I-580 project can continue ahead of its original schedule, as planned in September when the Nevada State Transportation Board approved a bond program.

Board members are Governor Richard Bryan, Attorney General Brian McKay and Controller Darrel Daines.

Two jewelers testify in Don King trial

NEW YORK-- Two New York jewelers testifying in boxing promoter Don King's tax evasion trial said Tuesday that King's co-defendant, Constance Harper, purchased numerous pieces of expensive jewelry from them.

King and Harper are accused of skimming $1 million in corporate funds and are charged with 20 counts of tax evasion, conspiracy and filing false tax returns.

Among Harper's purchases from the Marcus

Jewel Gallery was a seven-carat diamond solitaire ring valued at $65,000 and an 18-carat gold bracelet studded with 135 diamonds.

Target: Black America

the 1984 presidential election.

The attempts to infiltrate black America began last January with a march in Washington, ostensibly to commemorate Martin Luther King's birthday. Sponsored by one of LaRouche's numerous front groups, the march drew 10,000 (if you believe LaRouche's estimate) or 1,000 (if you believe the District of Columbia police). Nevertheless, the blacks who participated could not have known of LaRouche's racist history, including defending Pennsylvania Klan leader Roy Frankhouser against charges of aiding and abetting in the transfer of stolen dynamite.

LaRouche also has ties to the Liberty Lobby, headed by neo-Nazi Willis Carto. His publications have printed attacks on TransAfrica and its founder, Randall Robinson, the organizer of the successful "Free South Africa" movement, and have called Jesse Jackson an agent of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. LaRouche's organization was paid by BOSS, the Bureau of State Security, Republic of South Africa, to provide intelligence on American opponents of apartheid.

During the recent mayoral campaign, his followers disrupted speeches by Mrs. Andrew Young and had to be ejected from a meeting in Seattle of the National Newspaper Publishers' Association, the trade organization of black newspaper owners. Through recruitment at black colleges and a confusing mix of anti-drug and pro famine-relief efforts in black neighborhoods, LaRouche has targeted black America as fertile ground for his rantings about the international drug trade and the Zionist conspiracy.

Seven of the Atlanta candidates said they knew nothing of LaRouche or LaRouche's politics. They said they had been attracted solely by the group's anti-drug rhetoric.

"Let me tell you the honest truth," said Elnora Tillman, a candidate for Atlanta's school board who withdrew before Election Day. "I don't know what I'm doing."

But Lyndon LaRouche knows what he's doing. He's using the elderly and the politically unsophisticated to promote his brand of right-wing totalitarianism, his alliance with Nazis and the Klan, his support for the white supremacists in South Africa, and for President Reagan's "Star Wars" program.

If he's successful, a section of black America will have become allied with its own worst enemy.
