

Delta Sigma Theta To Present "Ultimate Glamour '85"

The Las Vegas Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., a Public Service Non Profit Organization will host their ninth annual Sepia Fashion Show, "Ultimate Glamour '85."

This year Sepia, a Chicago based Modeling and Publishing Agency will feature among other exotic designs, a $10,000 Black Diamond Mink Evening Gown. Background music will be performed by local entertainer Henry Shed.

This year's event will be held on Saturday, Dec. 7, at 8 P.M., in the Imperial Ballroom of the Aladdin Hotel.

Approximately $5,000 in scholarships will be awarded to local high school students. Donors to this scholarship program are being sought in the following categories: Scholarship Circle, $100; Distinguished Donor, $50; Sponsor, $25; Contributor, $10; and Patron, $5. Donors names will be published in Delta Sigma Theta's Annual souvenir journal.

Tickets to the fashion show are $15 for adults and $6 for students. Immediately following the show, Delta's will express their appreciation by hosting a social gathering in the Emerald Room of the Aladdin, with music for dancing, cocktails and hors d'oeuvres.

For further information please call Beverly Mathis, Fashion Show Chairperson at 645-0135, or Rosemary Hall, Scholarship Chairperson at 644-3779.

Evening gown in multicolored sequins in a silk column to the hip. Cascading at the hip are tiers of silk dots of chiffon that fall in layers. Add Pom Pom Sleeve Muffs in matching fabric, all by noted Chicago designer, Oree Casler.

From Cuddle Coat of New York, a 7/8 length Stroller Coat in soft Meltonwood and Cashmere, in the softest shade of pink trimmed in black silk braiding. Coat features stand up collar with double oversized patched pockets, worn over Missoni's new short length sweater dress. Fox cuff gloves and Fox Boa complete this outfit.

Blood Red Matte Jersey Evening Gown, draped at the waist and slim to the floor, with matching oversize Shawl Stole for those breezy evenings. By Rose Taft for Couture Fashions.

LVLIT Presenting "Talking With" at UNLV Grant Hall Little Theatre

The Las Vegas Little Theatre presents its second production of the eighth season at 8 p.m. Dec. 5, at the UNLV Grant Hall Little Theatre with Jane Martin's "Talking With." Performances run 8 p.m. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights with 2 p.m. Sunday matinees December 5 through December 22. There will be a free Beckett piece presented Saturday, December 7, following the evening performance. For reservations and information contact the theatre at 734-6971.

"Talking With" is a moving play that will take the audience through an emotional adventure using eleven women who share their deepest secrets with you. Together these women will have you laughing, crying, fearing, but always feeling. "Talking With" is a play so compelling that it has been chosen as the Theatre's entry for this year's John McHugh Awards.

Directing "Talking With" is Katherine Sandy O'Brien, who directed one of last season's most memorable production's, "Play On."

"Talking With" has collected some of the most talented women in the Las Vegas area. The list includes Chadda Battrell, Kathryn Preece Vasilyev, Sybil Von Torian, Dale Segal, Georgia Neu, Jacque Coon, Verloree Bader, Sue Nichols, Joei H. Durbin, and Adele Scott.

If there is one play this season that you shouldn't miss, "Talking With" is that play.

ROWE From Page 8

under the "Sam & Dave" name. Moore also won an injunction against Atlantic Records to prohibit the release of the new group's latest wax work . . . Ben Vereen will host "You Write the Songs," a game show that will feature two known singers as well as two published songwriters. Producers hope the cast of singers and dancers will be able to stop the winning roll of "Wheel of Fortune." . . . America's love for the antebellum south gave ABC's "North & South" a winning run. However, the mini was not strong enough to knock the "Bill Cosby" show from its number one spot . . . In a move to promote more cohesiveness at the Univ. of Miss., the officers of the 500-member Black Student Union have elected two whites to its cabinet. One is director of public relations and the other will act as a liaison between it and the predominantly white Associated Student Body org . . . Embezzlement is the reason that five top execs have been fired from the So. African Broadcasting Co., (SABC), but since the police are still on the case more arrests are expected . . . Along with welcoming spring, N.Y. will also say hello to Debbie Allen when she opens on B'way in "Sweet Charity."

. . . And if you haven't guessed already, this is NANCY & IT'S BEEN REAL . . . Billy Rowe is a syndicated columnist.

First LV Jazz Festival planned for Silver Bowl

Marilyn Mitchell, senior executive vice president for the Las Vegas Jazz Festival, Inc., has announced the signing of an unprecedented contract with the Las Vegas Silver Bowl to produce the first Las Vegas Jazz Festival.

The event is to take place May 23, 24 and 25, and will be Las Vegas' first major cultural undertaking of this magnitude, Mitchell said.

The historical event will bring an estimated 200,000 persons annually to the city, provide additional jobs for Las Vegas and funding for a local and national charity. Sponsoring the event is the American Foundation for the Preservation of Jazz whose objectives are to establish and preserve the musical form of jazz in America, to enlighten the new generation and perpetuate this special art form. The high-tech medium of film and video will be utilized to produce an archive of jazz film footage of both past, present and future jazz musical "greats." This film footage is to be housed in the foundation's own "Modern Museum of Jazz" which will be located in Las Vegas.

To endorsing the signing of the contract were Dennis Finrock, arena director, and Pat Christenson, assistant director. Also present were Arsenia Pitts, chairman of the board, and Michael Close, executive vice president of Las Vegas Jazz Festival, Inc.

VOTE