Pointer Sisters Return To Caesars Palace

Las Vegas, Nev. — The Pointer Sisters will ring out the old year and sing in the new at Caesars Palace as they hit center stage in the Circus Maximus Showroom with comedian Byron Allen from Dec. 26 through 31. Following this engagement, they'll take a week off and return to Circus Maximus from Jan. 8 through 13 with ventriloquist Ronn Lucas.

Ruth, June and Anita Pointer, of the neon ostrich feather capes, will star in two performances nightly, at 8:30 and 11:30, except for New Year's Eve, when they will topline a dinner show that begins at 8:30 and a special 2 a.m. show.

The Pointer Sisters have been touring almost non-stop this year, bringing audiences the beat-heavy music and sassy lyrics that have proven them winners in showroom excitement. They earned two Grammy Awards this year and have stoked audiences with favorites like "Dare

Me," "Jump (For My Love)," "Neutron Dance" and "I'm So Excited."

The Pointer Sisters have been evolving in their career since it began, climaxed by the popularity of the single

The Pointer Sisters. With that background and years of standing on stages of small clubs or packed arenas, Allen astounds audiences with the fact that he is only 23. He is also edging toward his degree in cinema and TV

"Dare Me" from their new "Contract" album.

Byron Allen was co-host for five years of television's "Real People" and has opened on the road for Lionel Richie, Dionne Warwick and Sammy Davis Jr., as well as production as a part-time student at the University of Southern California.

For reservations, phone the Circus Maximus Showroom at 702/731-7333 or 800/454-4544 (outside Nevada, within the U.S.)
