PEOPLE IN THE NEWS AROUND STATE, NATION

CORETTA SCOTT KING HONORED — Kenneth Hahn, Supervisor, 2nd District, Los Angeles County, Linda Crismond, County Librarian, Wini Jackson, Senior Public Relations Assistant and the staff of the Los Angeles County Public Library, sponsored a tribute to Black History Month honoring Coretta Scott King. Through the courtesy of United Airlines, Mrs. King, son, Dexter and secretary, Delores Harmon, were flown to Los Angeles and escorted by two United Airlines flight attendants to the podium at the A.C. Bibrow Library in South-Central Los Angeles. L-R: Erna Woolley, United Inflight Attendant; Mrs. King; Patricia Patterson, United Inflight Attendant; (Behind Mrs. King: Left, Gwen Green, Councilmanic Aid to L.A. Councilman, Robert Farrell and Mrs. King's son, Dexter.)

UNION PLAZA SCHOOL DISTRICT PARTNER — In a recently designed Partnership Program with the Clark County School District, the Union Plaza Hotel will provide hands-on occupational training for Leisure and Hospitality student at the Area Technical Trade Center. ATTC student, Randy Contrades, second from right, is shown with Union Plaza Bell Captains, Eddie Sanders, Vern Schultz and one unidentified employee at far right.

STUDENTS LEARN AT UNION PLAZA HOTEL — Six Area Technical Trade Center students enrolled in the Leisure and Hospitality program have been participating in occupational training by working along side or "shadowing" Union Plaza Hotel employees in a variety of departments. Assistant Hotel Manager, Faye Daniels, seated, is shown teaching computer operations to students, from left to right, Maria Schweichler, Mildred Jackson, Michelle Hawks, Randy Contrades, Charlotte Shields and Beverly Jiffeth.

BLACK LEADERS PLAN ATTACK ON ILLITERACY: Black leaders from every sector of the nation converged on the Bahamas Princess Resort and Casino in Freeport, Grand Bahama for the Assault on Illiteracy Program (AOIP) annual board meeting. Included in the planning meeting were (left to right): Augustus Witherspoon, S.E. Coordinator of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; Dr. Edith Francis, Pres., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority; Houston Conley, Exec.
