Rancho High To Receive Gift From North Las Vegas

The City Council of North Las Vegas will enjoy a departure from normal business Wednesday evening, April 2, when the Rancho High School contemporary rock group "Celebration" appears to collect a $5,000 donation from the City. "Celebration" is the only musical group from Nevada schools invited to perform during the opening days in May of the World Expo '86 in Vancouver, British Columbia. The city's donation will be used for travel expenses.

The group will perform a brief number from their repertoire at the Council meeting and will also perform a free concert for the community on Friday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m.

North Las Vegas Mayor James Seastrand stated that "we are pleased to be able to assist this group to travel and perform at the World Expo, and we are proud that they were chosen to perform."

Chorale Director Kathy Hayes states that the group is getting closer to having the funds they need for the trip. "Celebration" has helped to raise travel money by conducting car washes and bake sales. Group spokesperson, Michele Kowalewski, said that "the North Las Vegas community has really supported us. Beside the City Council, businesses and individuals in the community have provided almost 90 percent of the donations we received."

Sahara To Host Astronauts To Benefit Boys & Girls Club

Former Mercury, Gemini, Apollo, and shuttle astronauts will be getting together for a reunion April 4 and 5 at the Sahara Hotel. The reunion, sponsored by the Sahara Hotel and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Las Vegas, is being held in conjunction with the Boys and Girls Clubs of Las Vegas' annual "Man of the Year" awards dinner.

The reunion will begin with a golf tournament on Friday, April 4 at the Sahara Country Club. The format will be a scramble.

A dinner honoring Boys and Girls Clubs "Man of the Year," Barton Jacka, will be held Saturday night, April 5 at the Sahara. Jacka is Chairman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board. The astronauts will be attending the no-host cocktail reception at 6:45 p.m. and the dinner at 8 p.m. along with the golfing participants.

The entry donation is tax deductible and is $200 per person for golf, green fee, cart, special Astronaut Crew Patch Collection tee prize, tournament hat, golf balls, food and drink.

For more information on this special event, interested parties should call 367-2582. This first annual event promises to become an event you won't want to miss in 1986 or future years.
