UNLV To Again Sponsor National Sports Program

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas announces that it will again sponsor the National Youth Sports Program (NYSP) for the economically disadvantaged children of Las Vegas from June 16, to July 22, 1986. The five week program will provide instruction for boys and girls age 10-16 in swimming, basketball, volleyball, tennis, dance, racquetball, gymnastics and new games. In addition, a class for cultural enrichment will be conducted daily, a nutritious lunch and snack will be provided through the Summer Food Service Program for free and transportation will be provided at certain designated routes.

According to Dr. Porter Troutman, Director, each participant will also receive a free medical examination and a free NYSP T-shirt. In sum, the National Youth Sports Program is designed to provide a summer of education enrichment in a fun setting. Instruction will be given in the $6,000,000 UNLV Physical Education Complex. Enrollment is limited, so interested youths should sign up early. All Staff are highly qualified in their professional area.

Applications for the summer program can be obtained at Operation Life, 600 West Owens Avenue, telephone 649-0931.

Parent's signature is required. Dr. Porter Troutman Jr., at 739-3369, or Dr. Dale Andersen at 739-3374. For further information call
