Greater St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church, Hawthorne, to hold anniversary

The Greater Saint Paul Missionary Baptist Church of Hawthorne, where Rev. David Moore is the pastor, will be celebrating their thirty-sixth anniversary on Sunday, June 15, at 3:00 p.m. The Rev. E.M. Howard of Bethel Baptist Church of Hawthorne will bring the message. The Pre-Anniversary will be held on Friday, June 13 at 7:00 p.m. Pastor Cornel Martin of Trinity Temple C.O.G.I.C. of Hawthorne, will bring the message.

In 1949, Greater St. Paul M.B.C. was organized with 9 members in the home of Lee Charles White in a Babbitt house. The first offering was given by Mother Emma Jenkins--a visitor from Houston Texas.

The time came when the church had to leave Babbitt. On April 17, 1953 they had a ground breaking service at 949 A Street in Hawthorne and in three months the congregation moved into its present edifice. The church has made great progress in the past thirty six years.

All are invited to come and worship with them during these two services.

THE NAACP AND YOU!

--NAACP Marches Again Across America--

On the mark, get set, go--let's move up and out from where we are. Someone has written very pointedly that there is no such thing as a static position, you either move forward or backward. Not only is the NAACP marching figuratively but it is moving literally as well across America.

Black America now knows that she will always have to march. Marching has always been one of our survival techniques. We would not have come this far, if we had not been on the move in body, mind and spirit. In a boxing match or ring, a good corner man will speak constantly to his man, in the right-stop standing around - move-move-move - move to the right or move to the left-you are a target if you stand still.

--NAACP Marches Against Apartheid in South Africa--

The NAACP also marches for human dignity at home.

If you want to march with the NAACP--and you should, then come to the NAACP office and sign the list with others who are willing to stand up and support what they believe in. It's about time for you to stand up and be counted. Someone has said, if you don't stand for something you will fall for anything. The NAACP is located at 940 W. Owens or if you need transportation, then you should call 646-1662. Come and join the march Monday, June 2, at 3:00 p.m. in front of the Hacienda Hotel and march on the Strip to the federal building on Las Vegas Blvd. South and Bridger Street. A press conference will be held at the federal building at 5:00 p.m. Afterwards a Community Rally will be held in, the Club Rouge at 7:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Churches are urged to send their services and program announcements, typewritten, to the Las Vegas Sentinel-Voice Church Reporter, Mary Wilson, at 1201 South Eastern Avenue, Las Vegas, NV 89104. Articles must be mailed or delivered to the above location no later than Monday noon of each week.

--The NAACP Marches to The Polls to Vote--

The NAACP takes the lead, as it has for the past seventy-seven years, informing all people and especially Black people about the importance and power of the Ballot Box. Firstly, people must be encouraged to register; secondly, they should be taught what the issues are; and thirdly, they should be compelled or pressured to vote. Someone has written very truthfully, "A voteless people is a hopeless people." Blacks in West Las Vegas find themselves without political power, principally because they refuse to register and vote on election day. Potentially, there are about 13,000 people living in that area who qualify to register and vote, but only about 6,000 of them voted in the last election. In other words, we have enough unregistered voters to elect two or more state assemblymen. If this column applies to you, then steal away downtown and register very quietly; I won't tell anyone.
