D.A.'s Operation Clean Sweep Cracks Down

Clark County District Attorney Bob Miller announced today the successful completion of a program code-named Operation Clean Sweep designed to crackdown on absent parents in non-compliance with their child support obligations.

"Operation Clean Sweep" is a strong, clear message to Clark County that my office won't tolerate the continued victimization of children and their custodial parents by those responsible through court order to provide them with support," stated Miller.

Operation Clean Sweep consisted of two-man teams of investigators from the District Attorney's Office serving bench warrants on non-complying absent parents in Las Vegas, North

Las Vegas, and Henderson on July 18-19, 1986. The two-day operation resulted in the arrest of 23 individuals out of the 111 bench warrants the office attempted to serve. An additional seven individuals have made arrangements to turn themselves into the Family Support Division office this week to pay their arrearages.

With the cooperation and assistance of the State of Nevada's Department of Human Resources, Welfare Division, 75 percent of the cost of implementing the program (approximately $2,400) was funded by federal monies.

"It's important to note," added Miller, "that this is just the first of many such sweeps aimed at these 'missing parents'."
