Kool Achiever Awards Presented

Washington, D.C. -- At ceremonies in Washington, D.C. on July 30, five individuals received Kool Achiever Awards for their outstanding accomplishments to benefit America's inner cities.

The 1986 Kool Achievers from left to right: Education recipient Jacquelyn Donald, a loaned executive who has demonstrated unusual dedication to community service in her hometown of Birmingham, Ala.;

Business recipient Harvey Johnson, the executive director of the Central Savannah River Area Business League in Augusta, Ga., and a highly effective advocate for minority business.

Communications recipient Sally Joan Baker, a resident of Berkeley, Calif., and creator of a non-profit cable TV program for children called, "Wee Poets";

Arts recipient Byron Saunders, a resident of Atlanta, Ga., and the major force behind the development and growth of the Just Us Theater Company, one of the premier black theater companies in the Southeast.

Civic recipient Anna Coleman, a resident of Roachdale, Ind., and founder of the Jacer Inn Family Retreat, a non-profit recreation center for inner-city resident of Indianapolis;

The Kool Achiever Awards program was established this year to recognize the positive accomplishments of adults whose personal or professional efforts are creating a better way of life in inner-city communities.

Five award recipients received a total of $50,000 from program sponsor Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation to be donated to the non-profit community service of their choice.

Valley Student Center sets delay in construction

As a result of unexpected delays in the removal of asbestos from the student center portion of Valley High School, a contingency plan has been developed. District officials had hoped contractors would complete work on this phase of the Valley project by mid-August to make way for band rehearsals, student athletic practices and provide access to lockers and showers.

Because of contractor delays it is now estimated the student center won't be ready for use until at least October 1.

Affected student activities including band, volleyball and football have been rearranged. Instead of using Valley for practice, teams will use K.O. Knudsen Junior High School, Southern Nevada Vocational-Technical Center and Cannon Junior High School.

All six football teams (Valley and Chaparral) will practice at Chaparral. Additional storage trailers have been brought onto Chaparral's campus to use for storage of Valley team uniforms.

Instead of bringing student athletes to Valley for practice, buses will transport athletes to Chaparral.

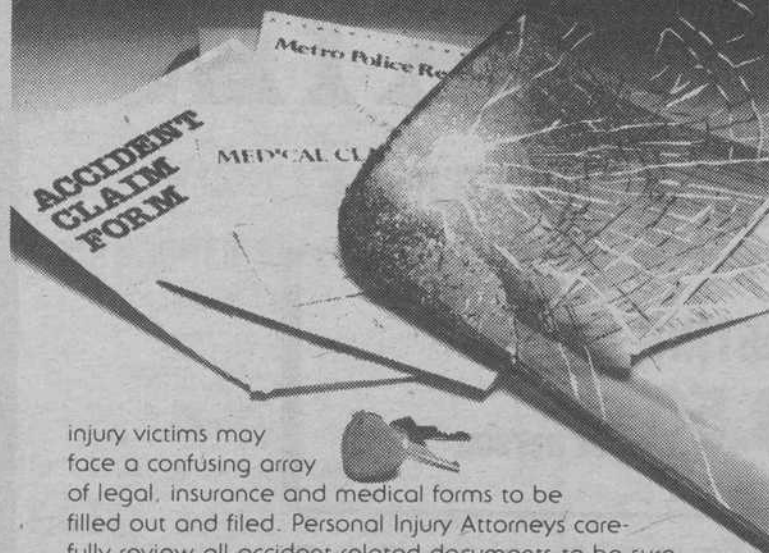

Since Valley won't be able to use their own stadium to play two scheduled home games during September, they will be the visiting team at Eldorado and Rancho. On September 5th Valley will play at Eldorado. Valley will be hosted by Rancho on Sept. 19.

All physical education classes for Valley and Chapparral students will be held at Chaparral.

Asbestos removal and fire safety retrofit work began this summer at Valley High School and Orr Junior High School as part of a five-year, $37 million dollar program districtwide. Valley and Orr will be closed for the entire 1986-87 school year while classes are conducted on a double session schedule pairing Valley with Chapparral High School and Orr with Woodbury Junior High School.

Despite the current delays, the overall asbestos/retrofit program remains on schedule.

When accidents shatter more than windshields...

injury victims may face a confusing array of legal, insurance and medical forms to be filled out and filed. Personal Injury Attorneys carefully review all accident-related documents to be sure injured clients are adequately compensated.

This firm accepts claims for a contingent fee; there is no charge for legal services until the claim is settled or won.
