

“What Is Happening Nationally”

This space is made available for listing of monthly events from our important AOIP and other community-building organizations

Academy on Human Rights and Peace

Since we are keenly aware that our nation's most insidious social problems are hidden from view, our organization is using an agenda to establish a base for action. For a copy of this 7-page agenda, contact Dr. Velma A. Jackson, 225 25th Street, N.W., Winston-Salem, NC 27105, 919-725-2176.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity

This fraternity has formed an alliance with the Boy Scouts of America. Alphas can help enhance this program. Local chapters may operate their own scouting units. Many boys would like to be scouts but cannot because there is no unit in their area. Information Contact: Waldo Johnson, 312-373-1819.

American Health and Beauty Aids Institute (AHBAI)

AHBAI is a consortium of Black-owned health and beauty product manufacturers, founded in 1981, who have learned the hard way that Blacks in every area of endeavor must work together for survival—or risk being destroyed individually. Information Contact: Lafayette Jones, 312-644-6610.

American League of Financial Institutions (ALFI)

Overall, the mission of ALFI remains the same as it was at its formation—to promote the economic viability of our nation's minority communities. This year's national conference will be held at the Grant Hotel in San Diego, California on November 5-9, 1986. For information, contact Theresa L. Watson, 202-628-5624.

This is a charitable and fraternal organization whose main thrust is to provide monies for hospitals, schools and educational grants. Information Contact: 2211 Cass Ave., Detroit, MI 48201.

Council of Construction Professionals

A construction industry-oriented organization that was formed to aid in the development and betterment of minorities in this industry. Information Contact: William Waters 212-682-0771.

Council of National Alumni Associations, Inc.

Every traditionally Black college urgently needs help. Get together with the local alumni association of your college. Please make sure that you are financial this month. Information

Contact: Thomas Dortch, P.O. Box 396, Atlanta, GA 30301.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

A public service organization comprised of 700 chapters and 125,000 members dedicated to promoting human and community betterment. Information Contact: Mary B. Hendrick, Executive Director, 202-483-5460.

Eta Phi Beta Sorority Inc.

Eta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. has a total of 83 chapters and approximately 8,100 members to date. We will continue in our growth in order to lend a helping hand to others. Information Contact: 15901 Bunche Park E. Drive, Opalocka, FL 33054.

Federation of Masons and Eastern Stars

This organization supports projects that include research in multiple sclerosis and children's hospitals. Information Contact: P.O. Box 1296, Austin, TX 78767.

I.B.P.O. Elks

A number of Elk activities symbolize "Unity in Brother- and Sisterhood," which was the theme of their national convention which was held in Los Angeles in August. Some of these activities include "Adopt-a-Senior-Citizen" Program; a summer computer leadership camp; and contributions to "Hands Across America." Information Contact: 919-358-7661.

Imperial Court Daughters of Isis

Organized in 1910, the Daughters of Isis unite in one common bond of friendship to practice charity and benevolence, to promote general welfare and to inculcate honor and integrity. Information Contact: Grace T. Brooks, Imperial Recordress, 317-283-7230.

National Association of Black Women Attorneys, Inc.
