--NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet Tickets are Available--

Tickets for the NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet can be bought at Larry's Sight & Sound Center on West Owens Ave. and Hair Unlimited on Highland Boulevard. Rather than wait until the night of the banquet and have to stand in line for a long time, why don't you get yours in advance and avoid having this problem? Only you, the longtime friends and supporters of the NAACP, can make that decision. You know better than I could ever tell, that other than the black church, the NAACP has been and still is your best friend. I personally know that the NAACP made it possible for the education I received, the job I have, the house that I live in and the automobile I drive in everyday. Therefore, morally and economically I'm obligated to continue my support for such a worthy cause.

--Nevada Voters League Meets--

On Tuesday night, Nov. 18, there will be a community meeting held at 940 W. Owens in the Nucleus Plaza Center for the purpose of reorganizing the Nevada's Voters League. The Nevada's Voters League was chartered with the State of Nevada to screen all candidates running for public office. The procedure is very simple in that the League develops a list of questions that are asked of each candidate to determine how they stand on the issues that affect the lives of Black people. The intent of the meeting is to encourage more people to run for political office and stand to be selected by the community on the basis of what they are willing to do to help the community. No selection should be made for reasons of personality or political party affiliation. Young people are especially invited to attend this meeting. Call 646-1662 for your banquet tickets today.

CHURCH NEWS

By Mary Wilson
Church Reporter

Mary June Parks, author, TV Personality, lecturer and businesswoman will be speaking Tuesday, October 14, 7:00 P.M. at Trinity Temple, 1000 E. St. Louis, Las Vegas, Nevada.

As born again Christians, Mary June and Burgess, her husband, devote much of their time speaking to various church and civic groups. When Burgess was stricken with cancer in 1977, he lay near death most of that summer. However, their strong Christian faith plus a study into nutritional therapy and a complete change of lifestyle, turned a poor prognosis into a healing miracle.

Mary June has appeared on Hour of Power with Dr. Robert Schuller and was keynote speaker at the International Women's Conference at the Crystal Cathedral in 1981. She is frequently invited to speak at The Women's Aglow Fellowships and has done numerous programs for the Trinity Broadcasting Network and has been guest of Pat Robertson on the 700 club.

Mary June Parks is the author of various books on nutrition such as Will Bible Foods Prevent Cancer? and her latest book, The Menu and the Mind, which explains how food affects our emotions and behavior. Mary June offers hope through a better diet and spiritual uplift.

Everyone is invited to hear Mary June Parks speak.
