

THE NAACP AND YOU!

Rev. Jesse D. Scott
President
Las Vegas, NAACP

--Jesse D. Scott
Receives National Honors--

D. Benjamin L. Hooks, the Executive Director and CEO of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People named Minister Jesse D. Scott, the president of the Las Vegas Branch NAACP, to receive National honors for his fearless and unrelenting service rendered to better the human condition through the NAACP for thirty years. Scott's service began in Los Angeles in 1956 as Chairman of Labor and Industry, President of the Westside Branch NAACP in Los Angeles, member of the National Staff NAACP, supervising thirty branches in Southern California before assuming the Executive Directorship and president of the Las Vegas Branch.

--NAACP Observes
"Freedom Fund
Banquet '86--

Sunday evening, October 12, was a festive occasion in Las Vegas for the friends and supporters of the NAACP. The setting was the Bally Grand Hotel and the scene was the Grand Salon Adelphi Ballroom. The Banquet was well attended by many outstanding personalities who included but were not limited to Governor Richard Bryan and Mrs. Bryan; Attorney General Bryan McKay and Mrs. McKay; Dr. William Pearson and Mrs. Pearson; Dr. Paul Meachum and Mrs. Meachum; Sammie Armstrong and wife; Colonel and Mrs. Thomas Leigh; Jimmy Gay; General and Mrs. Taylor, First Western Savings; Coach and Mrs. Wayne Nunnely; Mr. Anthony Thomas and guest;

Bishop E.N. Webb, Pastor of Pentecostal Temple COGIC; Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Hamilton; Ron Martin and guest of AFL/CIO; Mr. Joseph Madison, Political Director of Employees International Union, Washington, D.C., was a fantastically good speaker. Among other things he told the Blacks in the audience that they are not secure in their jobs and position and when you get in trouble, you have no place to go but the NAACP.

New Business
Workshop Offered

Any existing or prospective business owner, or those who are considering expansion or making another acquisition, will have an opportunity to learn what it takes to be successful through a workshop announced by the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The program is scheduled to be held on Friday, October 17th from 9:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., at the Clark County Community College, 3200 E. Cheyenne, North Las Vegas, Room 1068.

The workshop is open to all persons and will feature speaker on banking,

LOS ANGELES — LeRoy W. Jeffries received the prestigious Joseph Roos Community Service Award of the Public Relations Society of America, Los Angeles Chapter, at the annual Prisms Awards Dinner.

The award is given annually to a Los Angeles public relations professional for exemplary service to the community. In presenting the award, former PRSA-LA president Nat B. Read noted that among the distinguished clients serviced by the honoree, president of Jeffries and Associates, over the past 16 years are: Coca Cola Bottling Company of Los Angeles; Chrysler; Exxon, U.S.A.; Miller Brewing Company; Safeway Stores; United Airlines; Hiram Walker, Inc.; University of Southern California and others. He is also a member of the Presidential Advisory Committee on Small and Minority Business Ownership.

Read stated that Jeffries gives generous contributions in both time and money to community organizations and individuals to advance the quality of life for the less fortunate. He is a founding member of the National Association of Market Developers.

marketing, recordkeeping and legal aspects of a business.

(Service Corps of Retired Executives) and the Clark County Community College.

reservation call the Clark County Community College at 643-6060, ext. 200.

This workshop is co-sponsored by S.C.O.R.E. For information and Registration fee is $10.00. For information and

"NO MORE APPOINTMENTS: This time you have a choice."

LOUISE JORDAN

SCHOOL • TRUSTEE

- Elimination of School Drug Problem
- Curb the high drop-out rate
- Enhance counseling services for students
- Give parents and teachers a greater voice in the District decision making process
- Build better relationship with the Business Community
- Salaries which will attract and retain quality teachers
- Lower class size
- Parent and active community member
- Victim assistance officer, Clark Co. Juvenile Court
- Master's Degree in Educational Foundations and Counseling
- Involved member of Victory Baptist Church

Paid for by Committee to Elect Louise Jordan for School Trustee, District C, Margie Morris, Treasurer