

Kool and the Gang Return to Caesars Palace

Kool and the Gang

Kool and the Gang, who have recorded more Top 40 singles than Lionel Richie, Prince or Michael Jackson, headline the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom October 29 - November 3.

Just finishing a Southeast Asia tour that included sold-out performances in Guam and several Japanese cities, the group will soon release a new single, "Victory" and album, "Forever." The new releases are an extension of the positive, upbeat feeling in their '80s hits "Celebration," "Joanna" and "Cherish."

"Victory," says singer/bassist Robert "Kool" Bell, "is about success in life. It starts out sounding like it's about a game, but it's about much more. When you go out to accomplish things, it's a victory, whether you're going after a diploma or trying to become a champion at baseball and football."

While heavy metal bands succeed with a message of rebellion, Kool and the Gang continue to triumph with positive. Their 1985 album, "Emergency," is certified double-platinum. Their record sales compete with the top names in the business. A European tour immediately follows the Caesars engagement.

For showroom reservations at Caesars Palace, phone 702/731-7333 or 800/445-4544 (outside Nevada, within the U.S.).

Unity Theatre, Nucleus Associates Present Halloween Carnival and Haunted House

The Unity Theatre in conjunction with the Nucleus Associates, a Non-Profit organization, is presenting a Halloween Carnival and Haunted House for October 28-31, 1986. ## Gallery Opening and Reception at West Las Vegas Library

Artist Jacqueline Thompson will be honored at a Gallery Opening and Reception at the West Las Vegas Library at 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 25.

When she explored her Afrikan ancestry Thompson unearthed a world of rich color and pattern. Fusing the traditional Afrikan themes with art trends of today she creates the sculpture and water color exhibit, "Bila Kusita: Without Hesitating."

The exhibit will be shown through November 22.

Alex Haley
Journalist and Author

A Special Message from Alex Haley for minorities about careers in journalism

My career as a journalist began in my spare time with lots of desire and no formal training. Minority news professionals were scarce then and getting into the news business was tough.

If you have talent as a writer, cartoonist, graphic artist or photographer and you're interested in a career in the news business call this number toll free: 1 (800) 331-1750. Ask for Operator 125. In Nebraska call 1 (800) 343-4300. You'll get free information from the Society of Professional Journalists. Remember, journalism needs minorities, and minorities need journalism.

North Las Vegas Fairshow-Fun for Families

FAIRSHOW is coming to the Clark County Community College campus on Friday, October 24th. Sponsored by the North Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, this is the eighth season for this unique event. The theme is "Chariots of Fire" in honor of the championship hot air balloon races which take place Saturday and Sunday, October 25 and 26. The admission is free, so plan to bring the whole family!

The FAIRSHOW staff is pleased to announce that Chuck Hand, well-known Las Vegas balloon pilot, will again be the Balloon Meister. Nearly 100 balloons from around the nation, Canada and as far away as Cairo, Egypt, are expected to participate in this year's race. Many will be on display at the balloon field on Friday, Kid's Day, and school classes and other youth groups are invited to learn first-hand how a hot air balloon works.

The 1986 Fairshow also features a number of other interesting and entertaining activities such as the Centel Chili Cook-off which add a different dimension to this hot air affair. Vintage cars featuring antiques from the 1920's to fancy refurbished favorites from the 1950's will be on display at the Fairshow after they parade through town. The Mr. Macho

Contest provides a chance for "he-men" to show off their muscles and charisma with audience applause determining the winner!

Fitness buffs can join the Hot Pursuit 5/20 Biathlon early Sunday morning and prizes will be given to the winners in various categories.

An entertainment stage is located in the Food Fair and Beer Garden area and many groups will be performing for your pleasure.

The Bizarre Bazaar is open daily and will have a large number of booths featuring "collectibles" of all types -- a good place to get started on your holiday gift purchases!

Camera bugs will have a great time every day of the Fairshow and can enter the amateur Photography Contest by submitting their color shots of the various activities to the Fairshow Office during the month of November.

For additional information about activities, tickets, eligibility rules and deadlines for entering contests, write to the Fairshow Office, c/o the North Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, 1023 E. Lake Mead Blvd., North Las Vegas, Nevada 89030, or call 702-642-1944.
