attending the parade in Carson City and to all of those people who might have to work on that day.

In addition to a parade and a barbecue, there will be all-day music for dancing, a climb-a-thon, waterfights among the clark county firefighters and many more activities in honor of our state's birthday. All proceeds will go to University Medical Center.

The event is being sponsored by the University Medical Center Foundation Board. For further information, call 383-6022.

Haunt The Library This Halloween

All Hallows' Day, that time of the year when, auguries, ghosts, witches, goblins and faries boldly parade through the streets, has been celebrated nationally since the late 1800's.

Characterized by games, parties, the wearing of weird masks and costumes, and "trick-or-treating," Halloween ranks high on the list of favorite holidays by Clark County youngsters. To help local goblins have a safe and enjoyable holiday, the Clark County-Las Vegas Library District has scheduled the following programs (pre-registration may be required for some programs):

Clark County-Flamingo Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Road (733-7810), plans a special movie. Adults as well children are sure to cringe through Robert Louis Stevenson's spine-tingling horror tale, "The Body Snatcher." Young ghoulies may also attend "Ghostly Gatherings" (Friday) October 31. West Las Vegas Library, 1401 "D" Street (647-2118) will have their celebration at 3:30 p.m. All the programs are free.
