

Watch For The PROUD LADY

This is the identification symbol on the package of every fine hair care and beauty aid product manufactured by a leading Black-owned company. Not only does it tell us that the excellent products are made primarily for our unique needs...but also it lets us know that when we spend our dollars for these products, those dollars go much further in terms of "community-building" for us than generally is possible any other way.

Additionally, almost all AOIP-cooperating organizations have agreed to priority support for these and other deserving Black-owned businesses, nationally and locally. Since it has been so difficult to identify these products of Black-owned manufacturers in the past, their trade association—the American Health and Beauty Aids Institute (AHBAI)—developed this "Proud Lady" symbol for your convenience.

So whenever you feel the need to buy the finest products made primarily for our unique needs, look for the "Proud Lady" on the package. It helps you and helps build Black America. Some of these products are as follows:

Classic Recipes

Walt Disney World is celebrating its fifteenth birthday. It is world-reknowned for the Magic Kingdom, Epcot Center, its various vacation resorts and the Walt Disney World Village. But, would you believe it, Walt Disney World is becoming famous for its food.

This month, courtesy of Walt Disney World, we present its three most requested recipes. Topping the list is a creation by a Black man, Disney Executive Chef Johnny Rivers. His creation, Stuffed French Toast, was introduced as a breakfast item at the Walt Disney World Polynesian Village Resort in 1978. Today, it is the item most sought by collectors of Disney recipes. We know you will enjoy this and the other two Disney World favorites.

Stuffed French Toast Most Requested Walt Disney World Recipe—Served at Polynesian Village Resort

- 2 (Or 4) slices sourdough bread, cut
1-inch thick
- 1 banana
1/3 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg
1/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Oil or shortening for frying
Whipped butter, if desired
Maple syrup, if desired

Depending on the size of the slices of bread, cut a 2-inch pocket in one side of each bread slice. Cut bananas in half crosswise, then split each piece lengthwise. Remove peel and stuff 2 pieces in each pocket of bread, again depending on size. If slices are small, use 4 and stuff 1 piece of banana in each pocket. Set aside.

Mix sugar and cinnamon. Set aside.

Mix egg, milk and vanilla until well blended.

Heat about 4 inches of oil in a pan to 350°F.
