

Zion United Methodist Church Celebrates Men's Day

The Zion United Methodist Church will celebrate Men's Day on June 21, beginning at 11:00 a.m. and continuing with an afternoon worship service at 3:00 p.m. The Reverend Henry Morgan, Sr., Pastor of the New Hope African Methodist Episcopal Church, Summerfield, Florida, will be the guest speaker.

found that it is not enough to preach or repeat that Christ died two thousand years ago, but rather to explain why Christ's death was different and what it means to a person in Las Vegas and to the world in 1987.

In addition to working for God, Reverend Morgan is employed by the Batesville

Rev. Henry Morgan

Reverend Morgan accepted the call to the ministry on February 4, 1983. In addition he has an Associate Degree in Applied Science of Mortuary, a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology and currently studies toward a Masters Degree, all attained in Indiana. He has completed studies in religion at the South Georgia Conference Institute, the Central Florida Minister's Institute, is a member of the Prince Hall Free and Accepted Masons, and holds membership in the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. of the Delta Xi Lambda Chapter, Orlando, Florida.

It is Reverend Morgan's goal to not only preach the Gospel, but to teach it as a universal, perpetual doctrine relevant to all people for all time. His sermons focus on applying the lessons of scripture to today's situations. He believes that if the Church is to survive this era of skepticism and emerge the dominant, triumphant force in the hearts of men, particularly youths, it should accept this doctrine of relevancy. JSU To Host 11th Annual Church Workshop

JACKSON, MISS. — Jackson State University will host its 11th Annual Church Music Workshop June 23-28 in the F.D. Hall Music Center on the JSU Campus.

Sponsored by the JSU music department in cooperation with the Eighth Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Church, the workshop's theme is: "Church Music as it Launches Toward the 21st Century — A Critical Analysis."

Designed for music educators, ministers of music, church choir directors, accompanists and christian educators, workshop topics include: choir administration, conducting, choral repertoire, choral techniques involving children, youth and adult choirs, gospel music and spirituals, and hymns, anthems and responses, music in the urban and rural church, shape-note singing and demonstration concerts. The demonstration concerts will feature church and school choirs. Instrumental ensembles from Illinois, Indiana, Mississippi and Missouri will serve as demonstration groups.

Participants may register for three hours of graduate or undergraduate credit for $252 or $183, respectively. One hour of graduate credit or undergraduate credit is available for $84 or $61, respectively.

Workshop director is Dr. Jimmie James Jr., chairman of the JSU music department and minister of music at Pearl Street A.M.E. Church, Jackson. Dr. James, a noted authority on church music, was recently appointed to the board of directors of the Journal of Black Sacred Music. Formerly the director of music for the Eighth Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Church, Dr. James has served as a consultant for numerous church music workshops and participated in several national and regional conventions. He is the author of two books and several articles on church music.

Workshop consultants include Dr. Wendell P. Whalum, Morehouse College music department chairman and Glee Club director; Robert Ray, music instructor, St. Louis Conservatory; and Dr. Robert L. Morris, director of choral activities, JSU.

For more information on the workshop, contact Dr. James at (601) 968-2141.
