WORDS OF LIFE

"My judgement is just."
—John 5:30

I — We are not free agents. We are being measured. We are being "weighed in life's balance" every day. Do you measure up? What weight do you bring to bear upon the issues of life which need "the stubborn ounces of our weight" which only we can spare?

II — God is our judge. God has made each of us for a high purpose. Hence, God counts on us to do His will in all the things.

When we fail in any expectation of us, God's will for His world is strained; for the weight is placed on others.

Are you placing the wrong kind of weight on God? His "just" plan calls for you to measure up and to carry your just weight.

III — God's world is a world of order. God's ways and judgments are just and true because in the plan and economy of God "nothing is ever lost." The fragments of fractured lives will be brought together. Jesus, the Carpenter, will "make things right." The Great Designer's "plumbline" has been set so that, when the winds of life are settled, God's will and word ultimately prevail.

God's word and God's judgments are just!

Prayer Poem

The hymn "There's a Wideness In God's Mercy" tells as eloquent a story as any of the calm and compassionate justice of God.

We must be grateful eternally to F.W. Faber for his immortal words, written for our admonition and encouragement in 1862.

*There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice
Which is more than liberty.*

*There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in his blood.*

*there is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgement given . . .*

*For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind . . .*

Worship God in church this week. Keep God's will to keep holy the Sabbath Day. Put first things first; then your life may follow a pattern of justice and order.
