WORDS OF LIFE

"I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears."

—PSALM 34:4

I — God answers when we call. Most of us go through most of each day without "praising our savior," as we should be doing all the day long. When we thank God for answers to our prayers, even as we ask, our thanksgiving seals God's gift. It provides us with the spiritual attitudes which enable us to see and understand the answers which God gives.

II — God knows before we ask. "Before they call, I will hear," says the Lord. God has, indeed, "the whole world in His hands." "A thousand years in His sight are but as yesterday when it is past; it is even as only a watch in the night." "His eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me."

III — God has already answered your present need. Right now, at this very moment, your heart's desires and infinitely more are being fulfilled. Always, the answers for which we pray were being made ready even before we perceived the need. God hears and He delivers, when we seek Him.

PRAYER POEM

That God answers public as well as personal prayers is evident in the hymn, "Lord of our life, and God of our salvation." It was written originally in German by Mattheus von Lowenstern in 1644, toward the end of the Thirty Years' War.

Phillip Pusey, a notable English gentleman farmer and member of Parliament, paraphrased von Lowenstern's words and provided their present form. The famous Jewish convert and Victorian Prime Minister, Disraeli, said of Pusey that he was "one of the most distinguished country gentlemen who ever sat in the House of Commons." A social reformer, he coined the phrase, "tenant-right."

*Lord of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and hope of every nation,
Hear and receive thy Church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.*

*Lord, thou cans't help when earthly armor faileth;
Lord, thou cans't save when dead sin assaileth;
Lord, o'er thy rock nor death nor hell prevaieth;
Grant us thy peace, Lord.*

*Peace, in our hearts, our evil thoughts assuaging,
Peace, in thy Church, where brothers are engaging,
Peace, when the world is busy, war is raging,
Calm thy foes raging.*

—Amen.

fourth overnight retreat, Friday, July 31 through Saturday, August 1. This is not a shut-in. Participants will sleep Friday night. They will assemble together on one accord, away from ringing telephones, knocking doors, televisions, radios, loud noises and busy schedules and spend time praising and glorifying God.
