

AOIP

(Continued from Page 6)

Refreshment time for students and AOIP Tutor, OR-LA-CO Branch

teacher or tutor from any program—with only a modest amount of special training—can be far more successful in teaching Black and other inner-city learners.

The second part of AOIP's mission is to act as an umbrella organization under which Black organizations can help upgrade and change the environments and value systems of our inner-city and other disadvantaged communities so that they can become the mutually-supportive, secure, productive and hope-filled entities wherein every resident will be motivated to learn and become a responsible and contributing member of society.

AOIP'S ILC Sectional Directors

UNDER the direction of Dr. Mildred Bradham, co-chairperson of the Interorganizational Liaison Committee and former national president of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, five ILC sectional directors have been appointed to work with the state coordinators who assist and oversee the organization and development of State Divisions in their respective sections which cover all of the states of the Union.

The Northeast Section is under the direction of Dr. Dolores Harris of Glassboro, New Jersey. The 13 states and the District of Columbia comprise the Northeast Section with a total Black population of 3,454,954. They are Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, D.C. and West Virginia.

The Southeast Section is under the direction of Ms. Elizabeth Munnings of West Palm Beach, Florida. The eight states in the Southeast Section have a total Black population of 3,741,705. They are Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

The Southcentral Section is under the direction of Ms. Sylvia Lewis of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The five states in the Southcentral Section with a total Black population of 1,690,202 are Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

The Northcentral Section is under the direction of Ms. Annye Roberts of Saginaw, Michigan. The states in this

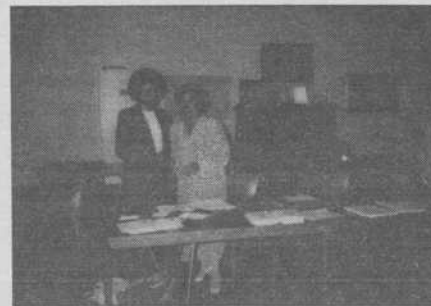

(Continued from Preceding Page)

Carrie Haynes leading an AOIP Workshop—January, 1987

Clayton Moore and visitor observer at AOIP Program

Scenes from AOIP Workshops