WORDS OF LIFE

"You will be a blessing."

—GENESIS 12:2

I — You are important. We so often turn to others to do great things for us. But here we are told that we are to be the subject or the giver of benefactions and not the object.

II — You have much to give. There's more good — and strength for goodness, kindness and love — in each of us than we readily use. That is because we fail to recognize always that god's life and strength are our possession.

III — Blessing others is our destiny. Don't miss out on your rightful due. We are each and all called to be benefactors of the world. But especially we are called to be benefactors of those closest to us...among our family members and with and for our friends.

IV — Bless in God's special way! Become a tither in your church. This is the fulfillment of a special blessing on your part. God gives each of us the capacity to bless in this way. Remember Jesus' words: "My yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Prayer Poem

One of the most insightfully beautiful hymns which came out of the early 1800s was Harriet Auber's hymn, "Our Blest Redeemer," written in 1829.

Miss Auber reminds us that God provides us the capacity to bless with the power of the Holy Spirit, also known as the Comforter.

She writes:

*Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.*

*And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.*

*And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness
Are his alone.*

*Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying see;
And every thought of holiness
Are his alone.*

—Amen

The Holy Spirit fills each of us, as we open our lives, and enables our spirits to soar...in love, in joy, in service.
