

Professional Black Women's Alliance To present Free Job Development Seminar and Job Fair

On Saturday, October 10 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. the Professional Black Women's Alliance will present a free Job Development Seminar and Job Fair at the Doolittle Community Center located at West Lake Mead Blvd. and "J" Street. The Seminar is being co-sponsored by the Clark County School District and the Nevada State Welfare Department.

The seminar is geared to help welfare recipients and other low income women needing a morale booster and guidance toward seeking and keeping employment. The program will include registration from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.; a panel discussion lead by Gwyn Brown-Coleman, Executive Director of the Nevada Black Chamber of Commerce and other panelists from a variety of employment area; a Job Fair with local business employers; informative workshops; and a fashion display.

Transportation from certain locations will be provided by Ray and Ross Transport, Inc.

Participants are to bring their own lunch.

For more information and bus routes call 485-5000, ext. 429.

Subscribe To The Sentinel-Voice Now.

Our good taste isn't just in our beer.

At the Adolph Coors Company, our concern for good taste doesn't end with our beer.

By getting together with organizations like the Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble, we're helping to bring a refreshing taste of Black American culture to an ever-larger audience. In fact, maybe you've already noticed the Coors name at top concerts, sporting events—even on a national radio show bringing news for and about the Black community.

So watch for the high-quality events and programs Coors has in store for you.

And the next time someone mentions the great taste of Coors, you'll know they've really said a mouthful.

