NAACP AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO STUDENTS: PRODS YOUTH TO EXCEL IN EDUCATION

The NAACP has awarded almost $150,000 this year to students-across the country to help in furthering their education, Dr. Benjamin L. Hooks, Executive Director of the NAACP, has reported.

One source of these funds is the Roy Wilkins Scholarship named in honor of the former Executive Secretary of the NAACP, which is presented to students annually who demonstrate the high spirit and outstanding leadership abilities of the late civil rights leaders.

At the NAACP's Annual Convention, 22 students won Roy Wilkins Scholarships totalling $15,000. The Roy Wilkins Scholarship was first presented in 1963, and since then, a total of $200,000 has been awarded to over 250 students. Students can receive either a $500 or $1,000 scholarship. Information about the Roy Wilkins Scholarship can be obtained by writing to Mr. John Davis, NAACP Youth & College Director, 4805 Mt. Hope Drive, Baltimore, MD 21215.

Another Association award is the Agnes Jones Jackson Scholarship, presented to black undergraduates and graduates under the age of who are NAACP members

This year at the NAACP's Annual Convention, $59,500 was given to 39 black students from across the country, the largest number of recipients and amount given in a single year to date. The Agnes Jones Jackson Scholarship was increased this year to $1,500 from $1,000 for undergraduates and to $2,500 from $2,000 for graduate students.

Made possible under the terms of a will of Ms. Jackson, a former member of the NAACP San Francisco Branch, the scholarship has been awarded to nearly 200 students who have received a total of $200,000 since its inception in 1981. For information about the Agnes Jones Jackson Scholarship, write to Dr. Beverly Cole, NAACP Director of Education. 4805 Mt. Hope Drive.

An additional special educational project of the NAACP is its ACT-SO program. ACT-So - an acronym for Afro-Academic, Cultural, Technological and Scientific Olympics — is a national program which annually involves more than 25,000 high school students.

The program promotes academic excellence among black students and encourages them to pursue their interests in a variety of pursuits. Students compete on a city, state, regional and on national level at the NAACP's Annual Convention in the performing and visual arts, humanities and science.

Prizes totalling more than $75,000 were awarded this year to the 64 final student winners to help in furthering their education. For more information about the NAACP's ACT-SO program, contact your local NAACP Branch.

These are the times that try men's souls. These are the times that try men's . are the souls. These . . . that Try . . . men's Times . souls. Don't freeze wince, grow faint out of fear, scamper, merge into bewilderment or shudder. The times are here - here and waiting. What times, you may ask? The times that do in fact try men's souls. Times that test your character, times that test your faith as a human being . . . a humanitarian.

Times when you yearn to sooth the pain of all the hurt bestowed upon you. Times when you grimace and hang your head in disgust. This is but a dream, you say; life is not all the hype and hoorahs that many are cheering. Times when the harder you push to finish the race, someone or something moves the finish line farther and even farther back, and it seems as though time is running out as well as your stamina. The perspiration dripping profusely in your eyes - blinding you-giving you yet another obstacle. Times when you feel like peeling away your suit of armor, laying down your equipment to let someone else battle the relentless war of injustices, poverty, oppression, degradation, illiteracy and innumerable other revolting areas of life that are nauseating. Times when love is not on your side. Times when your sacred world mentally, emotionally, socially and spiritually - is crumbling faster than the speed of momentary thought. Times when time is not on your side. OH!! I cry, what pity.

Times when . . . unforeseen circumstances befall us all. Times when . . it's time to pick ourselves up, dust ourselves off, go into solitude. Lick our wounds until they have healed, and when we have healed we can stand erect; we are invincible. Nothing can hinder uswe can stand the test of time. Hold on, Friend. The road is sweeter than the end
