WORDS OF LIFE

"Trust in the Lord forever"

—ISAIAH 26:4

I. Trust grows with age. It was Benjamin Franklin who said, "The longer I live, the more I am convinced that God governs the affairs of men."

Written more clearly with the advancing finger of time upon every succeeding day of our lives is the once fog-bound word, "Trust!"

II. Trust is the opposite of self-reliance. Some would boldly declare with the poet, "I am the Captain of my fate! I am the Master of my soul!" Yet "trust" calls inherently for self-surrender. We may hold up our important little end of things. But as "in the beginning," so, "in the end" it is God whose power proves all-sufficient for our every need.

III. Trust makes for serenity. How many of us have heard Marian Anderson's magnificent voice sing with sublime beauty and with a serenity born of her own trust: "O rest in the Lord. Wait patiently for Him; and He will give thee thy heart's desire!"

Trust, then, in the Lord—forever.

PRAYER POEM

Joseph Henry Gilmore (1834-1918) was a Baptist minister. He wrote the famed hymn of trust, "He Leadeth Me" in connection with a sermon on Psalm 23 at the First Baptist Church in Philadelphia.

Gilmore's wife quietly had the hymn published; and Gilmore himself was surprised three years later upon hearing it sung in the Second Baptist Church, Rochester. The words read:

*He leadeth me! O blessed thought!
O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.*

*Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,
Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me.*

*And when my task on earth is done,
When, by thy grace, the victory's won,
Ee'n death's cold wave I will not flee,
Since God through Jordan leadeth me.*

Join with the company of those who trust in the Lord, as you worship in your church or temple this week.

Monday, October 19 through Sunday, October 25 nightly at 7:30 P.M. Bishop Hines has a singing, praying, laying-on-of-hands, preaching ministry. Don't miss it. For more information call 648-3333. The First Pentecostal Apostolic Church is located in the Nucleus Plaza, 928 West Owens, and is pastored by Elder Sammy Graham.
