WORDS OF LIFE

"With God are wisdom and might."

—JOB 12:13

I — Wisdom comes from God. God Himself is Truth. It is God who created the universe and all that pertains to it. When we turn to a maker or a creator to learn about what has been created by His (or Her) hand, we are going to the source of wisdom for His world.

II — We learn from God in many ways. Here are a few:

- We learn from God through prayer.
- We learn from God through all the Scriptures.
- We learn of God through obedience to God.
- We learn from God by serving and loving others.
- We learn from God through disciplining our minds to explore his orderly truths.

• We learn of God through the humble surrender of all we do to Him.

III — God gives us the strength to do His will. "With God is might." God gives us the strength to do all things which are consistent with God's wisdom and God's will.

*He giveth more strength when the burdens grow greater
He giveth more grace as the burdens increase . . .*

PRAYER POEM

In 1886, William Crosswell Doane, the Episcopal Bishop of Albany, wrote the now famous hymn "Ancient of Days" for the bicentenary celebration of Albany, New York, the first chartered city in America. The text is taken from Daniel 7:9. This great hymn speaks powerfully of God's wisdom and God's might.

*Ancient of Days, who sittest throned in glory
To thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blessed the wide world's wondrous story
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.*

*O holy Father, who has led thy children
In all the ages with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod, through weary wastes
bewildering,
To Thee in reverent love our hearts are bowed . . .*

*O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we that thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always.*

—Amen

Remember God in public worship this week and every week, thanking Him for His goodness which crowns our every day.
