WORDS OF LIFE

"All things should be done . . . in order."
—I Corinthians 14:40

I — Plan! There is a famous saying which goes, "Folks do not plan to fail, they just fail to plan." Unless there is order in our lives, God can find no straight path through which to enter with His heavenly hosts. Bring your life into some semblance of order today.

II — Prepare! Prepare to receive the good God has in store for you. Not until Jesus had said, at the Feeding of the five thousand, "Make those present sit down" and so had achieved order, could He bring His great miracle to pass.

Prepare your life . . . and receive the miracles of God which simply await the ordering of your life.

III — Surrender! Disorder comes from resistance to God. Order comes the instant that we let God's mind and will rule and direct our lives.

It is the order which God yearns for in each of us.

PRAYER POEM

Evelyn Atwater Cummuns, a long time resident of Poughkeepsie, New York, was born in that city in 1891 and later became its first woman police commissioner.

It was in 1922 that she wrote "I know Not Where the Road Will Lead." It is a hymn of self-surrender.

*I know not where the road will lead
I follow day by day,
Or where it ends; I only know
I walk the King's highway.*

*I know not if the way is long,
And no one else can say;
But rough or smooth, up hill or down,
I walk the King's highway.*

*The countless hosts lead on before,
I must not fear nor stray;
With them, the pilgrims of the faith,
I walk the King's highway.*

The king's highway leads through your church or temple. Join with God's people . . . and stay with them . . . as you walk the King's highway.

Meetings, and visitation of Court Proceedings, Jails, Prisons, Housing, Planning and other community concerns. For more information call Elder James Washington Jr. at 646-9721 or 646-4080.

Evening Women's Aglow Fellowship will host a dinner meeting on Tuesday, March 8, at 6:30 P.M. at Port Tack on 3193 West Sahara. Dinner is $10 and the guest speaker is Denita Lambou. For reservations please call 870-0764.
