WORDS OF LIFE

"I will sing to the Lord."

—PSALM 13:6

I. Singing sets life on a higher plane. Singing, like poetry, expresses our sentiments in terms that are sublime. Singing enables us to express what we see, feel and think in the mindset of eternity. Sing! In doing so your spirits are lifted up. Life becomes different in fact.

II. Singing joins us with eternity. We are told by St. John, in his recording of his glimpse or revelation of the life beyond, that angels and archangels sing forever! Eternity involves, then, a life of perpetual singing. If we do not practice now, we may find ourselves misfits in the heavenly or angelic choir.

III. God loves our songs. Hence we are to "sing to the Lord." It is, in fact, our highest tribute, our most solemn recognition of God's goodness, grace and favor.

Even as God loves our songs of praise, so also do our families and friends. Since they, too, are reflections of God's life, it is fitting that we sing perpetual praises also to them. Have you sung to your loved ones . . . and to all the world . . . today?

PRAYER POEM

Fanny J. Crosby, one of the most celebrated gospel hymn writers of the last century, has left us a precious legacy of praise. Not least to be prized is the prayer plea entitled, "Praise Him, Jesus Our Blessed Redeemer."

God loves praise; and so also do our family and friends. "Praise changes things."

*Praise Him, praise Him
Jesus, our blessed Redeemer!
Sing, O earth, His wonderful love proclaim!
Hail Him, Hail Him!
Highest archangels in glory;
Strength and honor give to His holy name!*

*Like a shepherd,
Jesus will guard His children,
In His arms He carries them all day long.
Praise Him, praise Him!
Tell of His excellent greatness
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Ever in joyful song!*

When we sing praises to God, we are never "singing in the dark"; for life's shadows disappear in the wake of praise.

In all of our churches, we make a joyful noise to the Lord. Join in that chorus this and every week.

tion call 648-7806. Rev. M. Bennett is the pastor.
