Scene from "Straight From Heaven..."

WORDS OF LIFE

"If any one is in Christ, he is a new creation."

—CORINTHIANS 5:17

I. We are called to live "in Christ." One of the most remarkable, but far too little publicized breakthroughs in the religious experience of our times has been the discovery that at practically every place in the New Testament where the term "with God" (or "with Christ") is used, it is more accurately translated "in God" or "in Christ."

For God to be "with us" is great. For us to literally live "in God" is, in every respect, divine!

II. Being "in Christ" makes us new. To know that we are not less than divine is an awesome experience. It gives us a "new image." (Shall we dare say it?) It gives us the image of Christ!

It is an image from the vantage point of which we see all of life as bearing the imprint of its Maker, Creator, Source, Sustainer and End. Not only are we divine. So also is all of life. Touch life . . . and see yourself . . . reverently, for they and you are holy.

III. The new creation is to burst upon us. As we see life . . . and ourselves . . . as divine, all of life is touched, indeed infused, with glory! Reverence all persons. Reverence all nature. Reverence every aspect of God's creation. In Him, we see all life afresh, as though they were what in fact they are — "a new creation!"
