WORDS OF LIFE

The hymn, "Sing My Soul" has often been attributed to Charles Wesley. Its thought and style resemble that of the great church pioneer. But the hymn remains officially anonymous in origin. There is a fitness here, too, in that the words might well have sprung from many a Christian heart, by whom it might be said, "He put a new song in my mouth."

Sing, my soul his wondrous love,
Who from yon bright throne above
Ever watchful o'er our race
Still extends to man his grace.

Heaven and earth by him were made;
All is by His sceptre swayed;
What are we that he should show
So much love to us below?

Sing, my soul, adore his Name!
Let his glory be thy theme:
Praise him till he calls thee home;
Trust his love for all to come.

Amen

You will find a fresh song in your mouth when you have joined in public worship this week. Sing praises to God. But praise him especially for the graces which come through his church or temple.

If it doesn't concern you,
DON'T MESS WITH IT.
Thanks, Second Baptist,
for SHaring this with Us.
