The glory or tne "differing gifts" which God has given is reflected in a remarkable prayer poem by Adelaide A. Proctor (1825-1864). Although she was a woman who died in her early middle years, she yet possessed a sense of the myriad and illustrious gifts with which God enfolds all life, and so enriches it.

WORDS OF LIFE

My God, I thank thee, who hast made The earth so bright, So full of splendor and of joy, Beauty and light; So many glorious things are here, Noble and right.

I thank thee, too, that thou hast made Joy to abound: So many gentle thoughts and deeds Circling us 'round, That in the darkest spot of earth Some love is found.

I thank thee, Lord that thou hast kept The best in store: We have enough, yet not too much To long for me: A yearning for a deeper peace Not known before.

-Amen
