WORDS OF LIFE

Love, oh love, how good it is! And yet how exceedingly rare to find...either in others--or, most importantly, in ourselves.

Overcoming the conviction that we are the most important things or elements in life opens our hearts to the capacity for love. It makes us tolerant and respectful of others.

*"For God so loved! Oh, wondrous theme!
Oh! wondrous key to wondrous scheme!
A Saviour sent to sinful men--
Glory to God the Father!*

*In love God gave, in love Christ came,
That man might know the Father's name.
And in the Son salvation claim--
Glory to God the Father!*

*As man He tarried here below,
The power and love of God to show;
To help and heal all human woe--
Glory to God the Father!*

*By God exalted from the dead,
He reigns on high the living head
Of every soul for whom He blend--
Glory to God the Father!*

In the words which we have just reflected upon prayerfully, we open our hearts in divine adoration and so we are enabled to let God's love--for God and our fellow man--into our own lives.
