

ROAMING AND RUNNING WITH FRIEDA

By Frieda Pyles

Ran to Alexis Park to join the Tone Loc entourage en route to the Thomas & Mack Center where the MTV Tour was making their Las Vegas stop. As Tone was introduced the audience went wild...but what would one expect of Mr. "Wild Thing" himself! Ran to Palm Springs for the Miss California Pageant in which our former Las Vegas, Michelle Moody, was a contestant. Sorry to say that with all the Beautiful Black women in the State of California not even 10% were represented in this year's Pageant...making Miss Moody and the 4 other Black participants WINNERS -- not of the title 'Miss California' -- but winners to have even been numbered in the running. Congratulations!

Miss Moody's parents hosted a fabulous cock-tail party and sit-down dinner the evening of the Black-tie event.

Roamed on to Los Angeles to meet with a business group known as "Recycling Black Dollars" (RBD). This is a group of over 800 member entrepreneurs who have come together to revolutionize the Black economy in California by 'recycling' the black dollar into the Black Business Community. It's about time!

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. William Moses Percy. Mrs. Percy is the former Alice Carter of Flowers by Alice.

Ran to the Heartland Mansion for "Art D' Affaire" presented by the Delta Kappa Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta, Inc. of which Ms. Bonnie Juniel is the Basileus. Art D' Affaire's afternoon of elegance featured local Black Artists Ron Amie, Harold C. Bradford, J., Vicki Richardson, Sylvester Collier, and William Gattis. There was lovely music in the air provided by "The Last Generation" and the guest patrons represented the Creme de la Creme of black society in Las Vegas.

Roamed over to the Aladdin Hotel & Casino where the Negro Airmen International was holding its 1989 annual convention, hosted by the newly formed Las Vegas Chapter, the Ebony Eagles. The guest speaker at the Awards Banquet was none other than our own Dr. William 'Bob' Bailey.

Flash! Maxine & Al Gaff returned home last week from Vacationing in Zurich, Switzerland.

Nona Carroll, 'Dishing it Out' columnist for the Las Vegas Sentinel Voice, hosted a birthday party in honor of her spouse, Arthur. Among the notable guests were Percy Flowers, a new resident of our community, Martha Jordan, Dr. Angela Clark, Consuela Bramble, "Big" Al Northern and wife, Charlie, Thelma & Emmitt Houston, and a really special guest from New York City, the sister of Nona Carroll.

Congratulations to Christina Fryson and Tony Smoak for taking 3rd places in the Governor's Cup Tennis Tournament.

Roamed into the Aladdin's Lounge to catch The Treniers, the Group that has been voted Las Vegas' #1 Lounge Act numerous times over the years.

Happy Birthday wishes to

Members of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority

Dorthea Foster! Well, that was my week, how was yours? Gotta run.
