WORDS OF LIFE

"Look at what is before your eyes." --II Cor. 10:7

I. Open your eyes! Most of us never get to enjoy life to the full because, in effect, we never get beyond the womb. We have failed to open our eyes. God wants us to open our eyes, to use all the resources and gifts which He has given us to make life whole and sweet and full...and rich!

ii. Opportunity abounds! Especially as members of a "benighted minority race," we must be mindful that "opportunity waits for no man." We must always have our eyes open in order to "look at what is before our eyes" at every passing moment. One opportunity comes. Another comes and goes...kaleidoscopically.

III. Look! The answer to your prayer may be immediately before your eyes! Look! The things in your life you have hoped for the most may well be within your reach. Look! The happiness which seems to have alluded you may be the most concrete of realities which stare you in the face. Simply "look at what is before your eyes."
