

Lola Falana Photo Tribute Exhibited In West Las Vegas Library

"Tribute to a Lady," a photo exhibit featuring entertainer Lola Falana, will be on display in the Beni Casselle Gallery of the West Las Vegas Library, 951 W. Lake Mead Blvd., Sept. 14 -- Oct. 24.

Lola Falana

Photographers Lee and Gayle Phelps were inspired by Falana's courageous response to her illness, multiple sclerosis, to make her the subject of this exhibit. "Miss Falana has been the victim of M.S., but through therapy and positive mental attitudes has made a tremendous recovery," said

Phelps. "We feel that this exhibit may inspire those unfortunate ones with debilitating illnesses to strive to overcome them."

Falana became aware of the Phelps' through their work. Professional photographers and proprietors of Gemini Studios, the Phelps' special in baby and child photography. Falana began a relationship with the duo which resulted in the many portraits for this exhibit, large format photographs taken over the last year.

SPOTLIGHT ON SHARON BRYANT

With the release of her debut album Here I Am, Sharon Bryant, the songstress who helped make Atlantic Starr one of the most popular groups of the decade, celebrates her artistic independence and immense personal growth by delivering one of the freshest and most rewarding albums of the year.

As a founding member of Atlantic Starr and the original female vocalist, Sharon's compelling voice helped make such r&b/pop hits as "Love Me Down," "When Love Calls" and "Circles." Her decision, in 1984, to leave the group after recording five memorable albums, in order to grow both personally and artistically, was not easy.

Now, after five years of learning about herself, fighting through the fears of solo flight, and nearly 18 months in the studio, Sharon steps back out with a brilliantly conceived album on Wing/Polygram records. Daring to put all her emotions on the table, the gifted vocalist has produced an album emotionally personal, yet universally appealing enough to guarantee multi-chart format success. "I've always believed that if you give people your emotions, what you feel, nine times out of ten, they'll accept it," explains Sharon.

Sharon Bryant

The first single, the dance-groove-gem "Let Go," is flying up the black single charts toward #1 and generating excitement in pop circles. "Foolish Heart," Sharon's wonderful interpretation of a song originally written and performed by Journey's Steve Perry, is a likely second single.

Sharon's fondness for ballads is revealed by her tender and skillful rendering of "Old Friends" and "Falling." She also proves equally adept at delivering slamin' tracks like the fun-filled, uptempo romp "Body Talk" and album title cut "Here I Am."

Sharon Bryant has a refreshingly distinctive voice and an array of other musical skills. Co-producing, writing and arranging the majority of her album as well as playing keyboards and programming state-of-the-arts beats, this talented lady is set to make an impact on the contemporary r&b/pop music scene for years to come. "Part of my growth was to be able to produce songs which I felt and to see each one through to the end," says Sharon. "It was very hard but I wouldn't do it any other way."

Once too shy to sing lead vocals in neighborhood groups, Sharon Bryant has forcefully declared with Here I Am that she has come into her own as a strongly motivated artist with the special talents and a determination to make an impact on the contemporary music scene for years to come.

Announcing . . . An Affordable Alternative!

Las Vegas

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

SAVE UP TO 50%

On Your YELLOW PAGES ADVERTISING!

The official Las Vegas Telephone Directory® presents the exciting new Las Vegas Yellow Pages® and a new dimension in advertising — The Talking Telephone Pages®.

Now — At Last — an affordable alternative to phone book display rates.

The Las Vegas Yellow Pages® will feature: • Alphabetical business index • Extra large, easy-to-read print • Braille emergency numbers • Listing zoned by location • Separate listing for all government agencies

COMPLETE DIRECTORY
Including White & Yellow Pages

Call Today For
More Information 897-1750

Las Vegas Telephone Directory®,
A Nevada-based Corporation.