WORDS OF LIFE

Prayer Poem

In 1745, William Williams wrote a hymn originally entitled "Strength to pass through the wilderness." It became popularly known later for its first line, "Guide me, O thou great Jehovah." The hymn speaks of the door or gateway leading over Jordan and into Canaan Land.

May God lead each of us safely through the doorway which "lands us safe on Canaan's side."

*Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand.*

*Open now the crystal fountains
Whence the living waters flow,
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through.*

*Feed me with the heavenly manna
In this barren wilderness;
Be my sword, and shield, and banner,
Be the Lord my Rightousness.*

*When I trend the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side.*

"I am the door," said Jesus. In and through Jesus, the doorway to eternal life, we find the fulfillment of our being.

A door is open each week in public worship for us to gain a greater glimpse and experience of eternal life.
