

THE NAACP AND YOU!

Rev. Jesse D. Scott
President
Las Vegas, NAACP

--NAACP Extends Seasons Greetings--

The Las Vegas Branch NAACP extends seasons greetings to its many members and friends in the greater Las Vegas Valley. May your holidays be filled with a spirit of being safe, sound and sober. Remember, the life you save may be your own. The bible says, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." If you believe that, then why don't you give your loved ones the gift of a NAACP membership for Christmas?

rededicating ourselves to the ideals of the Christmas message.

I'm thinking of such reminders of the need to act as the many homeless for whom Christmas is not a day of celebration but another day of humiliation and struggle for survival.

I'm thinking of poor children for whom Christmas is not a day of unwrapping expensive gifts, but of wonderings why they are cold and hungry.

And I'm thinking of the many others so often ignored by our society, such as AIDS sufferers, the jobless, the uneducated who can't compete in this economy any more.

We need to make them part of our Christmas, too, for the meaning of the season is that we are all one, and that what hurts one hurts all.

It's a meaning based on religious and moral principles that have stood the test of time and of the ages, but it also an expression of the truth that we are all vulnerable.

Each of us may become ill, lose a job, be shattered by crime, buy drugs or other scourges of our society. And most assuredly, each of us will become vulnerable to the inroads of age.

This season also witnesses the inspiring revolution sweeping across the communist world, as people are rising up against their rulers and demanding the rights we

--NAACP Press Conference--

On Tuesday December 19 the Las Vegas Branch NAACP held a press conference in the branch office, 940 W. Owens on the recent mail bombing in the State of Georgia.

The Las Vegas Branch N.A.A.C.P. and all God-fearing/patriotic Americans must speak out in one clear voice of unity against the cowardly, racially motivated acts of mail bombing of the N.A.A.C.P. Atlanta office earlier this year, as well as the killing of Federal Judge

9th Annual King-Week Activities Scheduled

Plans have been finalized for the 9th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King -Jr. Birthday Parade and weeklong activities celebrating the birthday of the late human rights leader.

The birthday parade is set for 12:00 noon on Saturday, January 13th in downtown Las Vegas. The deadline for individuals, groups, and organizations to participate is Monday, January 8th. Awards for various categories in the parade will be presented on the evening of the 13th at the Annual King Banquet to be held at the Palace Station. The keynote speech will be delivered by Dr. Delores Spikes, President of Southern University, Baton Rouge, LA.

For parade entry forms or Americans have so long taken for granted.

That too, is an apt reminder of the blessings we enjoy. No matter how hard our condition, no matter how harmed we are by the effects of bad public policies and evil discrimination, we live in a land where we can freely protest and can organize to change conditions for the better.

And that too, is an indispensable part of what I call rededicating ourselves to the Christmas spirit of brotherhood and the oneness of humanity.

For rededication is not simply saying "isn't it a shame" when confronted with the inequalities and injustices in our society. It is a

Robert Vance and Attorney Robert Robinson.

These terrorist acts, as well as this kind of senseless mentality must be condemned and discouraged by President Bush, the Congress, the Judiciary, and the religious pulpits of America, and the guilty ones imprisoned for life.

--NAACP Calendar of Events--

The following list of NAACP events are reprinted so that a larger number of the readers of this column might know about and participate in them. On January 6 from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. in the branch office, there will be held a community planning conference. The people invited to attend this conference are: Pastors and ministers, Black elected officials and community leaders and organizations. This will be a conference of planning for action.

resolve to do something to change them, and to help our society to overcome the poverty and racism that are sins against the spirit of the Christ whose birth we celebrate.

May you have a joyous Christmas and may you share your blessings with others and work to make our society the shining light it can be.
